

RESEARCH STUDY Call for Participants

Principal Investigator: Thomas A. Dahan, PhD
Email: tom.dahan@camden.rutgers.edu

We are seeking current or former Clinical Instructors for nursing students to participate in an online survey that will take 25 minutes to complete.

This survey focuses on the competencies associated with effective teaching in clinical settings.

This study seeks to pilot test an instrument designed to measure the self-efficacy of nursing clinical instructors, examining the skills associated with effective teaching in clinical settings.

Your anonymous responses will enhance the education of future nursing clinical instructors.

Thank you for your willingness to participate!

INCLUSION CRITERIA:

- Able to read and understand English
- Current or former clinical instructor working with groups of nursing students in the clinical setting
- Resident of the United States or U.S. Territories
