

Mosaic ATV Road Use Restrictions:

By accessing Mosaic managed lands, you are confirming that you have read, understand and agree to the terms contained within the access agreement between the ATV club that you are a member of and Mosaic Forest Management Corporation.

At all times that you are on Mosaic managed lands, you must be able to identify your location on this map.

ATV use on roads and approved, signed trails in highlighted areas only. If you are unsure if a trail is approved, do not ride on it.

Absolutely NO ATV riding through streams or watercourses.

The attached map sets out the following areas:

RED – Areas indicated in red are off limits and access by ATVs is not permitted.

YELLOW – areas indicated in yellow are mainline corridors that must be followed by ATVs. Any trails or secondary roads that adjoin the mainline corridors in areas marked as yellow are off limits and access by ATVs is not permitted, notwithstanding whether such areas are marked red on this map or not.

GREEN – Areas indicated in green are authorized for ATV use as per the terms of your ATV club agreement. ATV club members are only permitted to use those areas shown in green that are located within the area designated for their ATV club's use and may not use those areas outside of the designated area, even if shown in green.
