COBRA FMA SYLLABUS

STUDENT NAME:

LICENCE NUMBER:

EXPIRY MONTH:

COBRA FMA (Karate, Kickboxing & Ju-Jitsu Combined)

Andrew Morrell, President of the CMAA, who holds Black Belts in each of the 3 styles, wrote this syllabus. It is for the use of the students and Instructors of the CMAA. It is a guide to each grading from beginner (8th KYU Yellow belt) up the Junior & Adult Black Belt levels.

It is important that the student clarify with their Instructor exactly the correct interpretation for each technique, as incorrect techniques performed at the grading will result in a zero score for that technique.

Please note that unless the words LEAD or LEADING appear in front of a single punch or kick then it always done with the reverse arm or leg. Please check if the technique is done on the spot or advancing forward.

Full respect must be given to anyone who has a higher grade than you. Failure to give this respect could result in expulsion.

Using the CMAA PGS Students will be assessed as they learn with each technique being signed off once they are able to perform it. Once all of the techniques required for each grade are complete the grade will be awarded and the grading fee will become due. Should the student struggle with a technique it may be differed and the grade awarded but must be completed prior to Black Belt. Before awarding each grade students will be required to show at least 2 techniques at random from all previous grades by way of revision.

Upon reaching the age of 13 children will then be expected to learn the 13 Years + sections prior to moving forward in grade. With regards to Junior Black grades the child will then attempt 1st Dan no matter what level of Junior Black they are at. To do this they will learn and perform all of the 13 Years + sections in front of the CMAA Black Belt Grading Panel.

Arm & Leg Lock Bunkai

The word 'Bunkai' means analysis or to find meaning.

It is taken from Kata applications found within most traditional styles of Karate.

Within this syllabus you will be taught self-defence / protection techniques that involve restraining your opponent, by use of locks and holds, in such away that they cannot move / escape.

However, in order to apply these locks and holds effectively it is important that you understand how and why they work.

The 21 arm locks and 18 leg locks contained within the following pages have been placed together as a flowing Bunkai for that very reason.

You will learn them progressively as you go through the grade structure adding 1 or 2 more at each grade.

When practicing them with your partner they must be applied slowly and methodically.

This will work in 2 ways for you:

1. You will learn their correct application.
2. In time they will become second nature as they become programmed into your subconscious.
