

Icebreaker Questions:
One thing that gives you hope in these hard times?
How do you keep your head above water?

When people say that their vote doesn't matter, I always tell them it DOES matter, otherwise Republicans wouldn't be working so hard to stop people from voting.

Young queer racial justice organizers.

Amazing organizers like you!!

When I canvass and plant seeds.

Doing the work – Action.

Joey Klascius gives me hope.

Young people getting involved and caring about social justice.

Seeing democrats organizing strategically!!

Not feeling very hopeful. But joining with a group that is working for change and has a direction is helpful.

Taking action gives me hope! Because I see change is possible!

Seeing new and young voters.

Speaking up!

Seeing so many young people connecting online sharing what's going on around the country and globe.

I keep hearing Biden has lost the youth vote please share with us and give me hope.

Kids when they ask questions or try to answer questions and are really interested in the answers.

We've faced equally hard risks before and gotten thru them.

Seeing young activists that I mentored take leadership positions.

Love Torie's HIGH STANDARDS for meetings!