

What is something uplifting you've heard in the news recently?
Making Waves for Democracy 5-19-24 meeting

Arizona judge dismissed Rep. lawsuit to change/get rid of voting rule book.

The first time the Dow Jones is over 40,000 points thanks to President Biden.

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau decision out of SCOTUS.

The Times fed the Trump Transcripts in to various AI bot, asking if they were the Trump Jury would they convict... the response was yes!

Overdose death rates declined by 4% for the first time in years. Biden's policies uplifting many folks and growing substance abuse treatment programs are likely responsible.

My first thought was Nicholas Kristoff, too! His new book is called Chasing Hope... How upbeat is that?!

Recent news of CA law fast tracking to turn office buildings into apartments to beat homeless crisis.

Supreme Court upholding Louisiana's redistricting plan to add a 2nd majority black district in the state! Upholding the Voting Rights Act.

George Whitesides is now in a virtual dead heat with MAGA Mike Garcia. We can win this as voters learn more about how strong George is and who MAGA Mike really is!!