

Multi-lingual Action Team
Xiomara Flores-Holguin
April 7th Meeting

- Xiomara continues to hold Spanish-speaking "coaching/practice" virtual meetings - every Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to Noon. Thank you to the Bilingual Compañeras for attending our coaching class. It's not too late to join us.
- If you're interested or know any Spanish-speaking friends who are interested in preparing for Spanish-speaking canvassing or phone banking opportunities in both CA-27 & CA-47, please contact Xiomara at xiomarafloresholguin@gmail.com
- MWD Leadership members Katherine K., Regina B., and Xiomara met with CA-47 Congressional Candidate Dave Min's campaign manager, Dan Driscoll, to discuss and offer campaign support. We're happy to share that MWD member Suzanne G. will assist the campaign with Vietnamese translations (postcards, phone banking script, and other CA-47 Vietnamese translations. Thank you, Suzanne! Also, MWD member Joan Ling has offered to assist with Chinese (Mandarin) translations. Thank you, Joan!
- Xiomara will follow up with Robert J. of Grassroots Dems HQ to discuss and create a Spanish-English list of commonly used political campaign words to assist limited Spanish speakers during canvassing, phone banking, etc...Thank you, Paul, for this suggestion.
- Xiomara invited the MWD membership to recruit bilingual friends to attend our MWD meetings and join the Multi-lingual Speaking Action Team.

Thank you/Muchas gracias!

CANVASSING REMARKS:

- Xiomara shared that the more you canvass, the more comfortable you become with canvassing and speaking to voters. Additionally, the canvassing event provides for reunion meetings with members of Making Waves for Democracy and other partner organizations: AVDC, Grassroots Dems HQ, Swing Left, Indivisible AV, and other important groups. As the important election nears, we must be united in our message to elect our Democratic candidates.
