0:00:00 McAdams Hi, and welcome back to another episode of the DGEO Politics show. I am your host, Sarah, unfortunate, well, maybe fortunately, depending on how you look at it. Chris is traveling today. So I am joined by our wonderful guest co-host, David Riley from the Backlash, which you guys all know. I don't need to introduce again. Today, we're obviously going to get into the craziness that is going on in the United States. Guys, don't forget to like, share, and follow the stream, as well as David on YouTube and Twitter. We dropped some new merch this week. We'll be dropping some more as soon as I get the sweatshop workers to get making those designs. Also, I just want to take a moment to say a rest in peace to someone who probably changed my life, definitely, well, definitely changed my life, Professor Michael Parenti. We did host a, I wrote a tribute to him. It is on our sub-stack. Thank you all for subscribing. We've recently seen a surge in the sub-stacks subscribing, subscribers, but I can't really help but think about how serendipitous it is that Michael Parenti, someone who was constantly talking about us backsliding into fascism or authoritarianism, passed away this week. The day, the day that Alex Pretti was murdered in Minneapolis. So, but first, I want to welcome our guest for today, which I really want all of his opinions, and I'm really excited to see the two of you kind of tease these out. So he's been on before, as you guys have seen. Wonderful, wonderful. Daniel McAdams. I messaged him yesterday, like, everything is horrible. Would you like to come on the show? Who's like, sure. So we're all here together to kind of, I guess, misery loves company or something, but how are you, how are you both, and how are you both kind of doing with kind of what's going on? I'm just trying to chill out because I've been pissed off

0:02:17 Dave for like 24 hours straight.

0:02:19 McAdams You know, I just, I don't know, I've got to, I just like, I just turned away from it.

0:02:23 Dave I've got to stay away. I just like, I am so mad at everyone. This is not healthy.

0:02:28 Dave Yeah, there's been a lot of rage baiting going on, on the timeline for sure, trying to get people upset on both sides. And I'm staying out of it, man.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:02:39 McAdams I am definitely staying out of the rage bait. I'm not even really joining into the nuanced discussion because I don't know that it really matters. The who killed who and the what's in the, and all of that. But I think we'll get into that in a little bit. First, I do want to just go over really quickly, not too long, but the new NDS, which I thought was kind of, sorry guys, this isn't a Word document because I couldn't get the PDF to do what I needed it to do. But I recommend that you all do read through this. That's NDS that just came out. There's a lot of, I've literally noticed the phrase burden sharing is littered throughout this thing. It's all over it talking about sharing this sort of burden, increasing burden sharing with our allies, supercharging the industrial base. The new golden age, a lot of that language throughout the thing. I was wondering, did either of you get a chance to read this and kind of tease it out a little bit? It goes through this sort of blame game talking about, everything for this administration is like a campaign opportunity, whether it's Davos or writing a policy. So the intro is just them kind of trashing the old regime and saying, we're not really on the precipice of World War III. The interesting ships come when they start talking about Russia. And they say, we acknowledge that Russia is the biggest threat to Europe, but you're kind of on your own. We're going to go back and focus on our sort of, our hemisphere. We've done Operation Midnight Hammer. Israel is the model ally. North Korea is not really a threat to us. It's only really a threat to South Korea. And that's sort of your problem. Also, it had the Trump corollary to the Monroe Doctrine, which is, as of the after years of neglect to the Department of War, we'll restore American military dominance in the Western Hemisphere. We will use it to protect our homeland and our access to key terrain throughout the region. We will also deny adversaries ability to position forces or other threatening capabilities in our hemisphere. This is the Trump corollary to the Monroe Doctrine, a common sense and potent restoration of American power and prerogatives in this hemisphere consistent with Americans interests. This feels like a big cope to me.

0:05:07 Dave The whole document to me just seemed like one giant Trump glazing session, honestly, it didn't really even seem like there was ideology behind it. It was more or less just trying to ex post facto justify the things that Trump has done and try to put it in a coherent packaging that can be sold to the MAGA base as this is what America first looks like in action. I would seriously doubt that it is America first. Again, a lot of the stuff that we've been seeing going on, Operation Midnight Hammer in the Middle East, the stuff in Syria, the potential new incursions into Iran. This is about the Jews, this is about Israel, this isn't about America first and there's been a lot of argumentation back and forth about Venezuela. Is this actually going to be benefiting the United States? I mentioned on my show a couple days ago that I went to the gas station the day that they did the op on Maduro and gas was 218. Last time I checked it was up in the 230s. So gas is up 8% since we've struck Venezuela and kidnapped Maduro or whatever you want to call it. So I'm not really seeing positive stuff come out of there. And yeah, it's interesting. There was a lot of stuff about Russia, Ukraine, China, and this Taiwan stuff is going to be heating up over the next couple of years. But I don't know, it just seemed like a giant Trump glazing.

0:06:43 McAdams A lot of things are like you didn't spend your money right. Like we know that Russia is a threat to you, but you're spending and your your armies to war for Russia. So if you play, if you spent your money right, you wouldn't be in this situation. It was very interesting, but they're kind of leaving Europe with the bag. What are your thoughts, Daniel?

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:07:01 Dave I mean, you guys are such naysayers.
- 0:07:03 McAdams I mean, when I read this next line, I felt so much better. The department's priority in Africa is to prevent Islamic terrorists
- 0:07:10 Dave from using regional safe havens to strike the US homeland.
- 0:07:13 Dave I mean, didn't you guys realize that Nigeria is about ready to new gods? Somalia is firing up the ICBM. So when I read that, I just said, I just said, thank you, Daddy Trump. Appreciate it. But, you know, somewhat more seriously, I mean, it's not a serious document. It's it you talk about Trump glazing. I get that. But to me, it felt more like Hegzeff. I could you could almost feel Hegzeff in the language. Unbelievably superficial.
- 0:07:44 Dave That's Hegzeff. Everything is performative.
- 0:07:46 Dave Everything is I'm a tough guy.
- 0:07:49 McAdams You're fat. I hate you.
- 0:07:50 Dave You know, that's him. And that's what the whole thing sounds like.
- 0:07:53 Dave And I actually just did a word search.
- 0:07:55 McAdams I didn't I read the whole thing, but I didn't, you know, pour over it.
- 0:07:58 Dave Remind me of the national security strategy.
- 0:07:59 McAdams Very superficial. But I did notice that 10 times using the peace through strength,
- 0:08:04 Dave 10 times as if repeating, repeating, repeating, we can somehow recreate the era of Reagan defeating communism. All this mythology of America's past and all this glossing over of its of its current. But, you know, you nailed it, Sarah, the thing that struck me. And actually, I wasted time before I should have been studying it because I had a post on X. This Israel is a model ally for the US. That's all you need to know.
- 0:08:30 Dave That if that's the case, then that's all you.
- 0:08:32 Dave Someone who sucks us dry infiltrates our Congress,
- 0:08:37 McAdams forces every single member of the House and Senate complete fealty
- 0:08:41 Dave to this foreign country and guts us in a bunch of wars. If that's a model ally, we need to pack it up and go. There's no future.
- 0:08:49 McAdams It's it's really great. And we're going to talk about Israel on the new pipe. Oh, look at you. Look, now we're now we're like really a high end show.
- 0:08:57 Dave I'm just trying to get a tobacco. I'm trying to get a tobacco sponsor

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:09:03 McAdams for the podcast. Well, that's the way to do it. Let's jump right into it. The ice. I don't even know what to call it, but I want to give a little bit of background to this because we went over this in back about an hour. It's about a month and a half ago. We went over the NSPM seven, which our viewers might remember. Kate, we talked about it simultaneously. We talked about the Pam Bondi thing. But the interesting thing about the NSPM seven is it tells you like, what are who's getting labeled as a domestic terrorist? And what are the indicators of violence? And that list is quite interesting. And, you know, anti-Americanism. OK, we don't really understand the definition of that anti-capitalism. What does that mean? If I'm against the Walmart being built in my neighborhood, anti-Christianity. I'm reading that as anti-Evangelical Christianity, so anti-Zionism. So this sort of, you know, these sort of wishy-washy things. And then this other thing on the right is from a lawyer who says, we cannot predict exactly how the memo will be implemented or provide legal advice on specific questions regarding this, because nobody even knows how it will be used. This came out shortly after the murder of Charlie Kirk, which was very interesting. This NSPM seven also created joint terrorism task forces, which would investigate, prosecute and disrupt entities inside of the United States. I don't know if these are sort of up and running yet, but I'm guessing that this ICE operation is part of that rollout. Then we have Pam Bondi's memo that came out on December 4th. I think it was leaked out probably on purpose, which sort of reiterated the same thing. But then it went further to define what domestic terrorism is, which included it was the implementation plan for the NSPM seven. So that included doxing of law enforcement, rioting, violent efforts to shut down immigration enforcement and targeting of public officials, et cetera, et cetera. This in this memo, this was where she ordered the FBI to compile their lists and to get the federal agents to start reviewing files. So all of this is going on. And then I have this clip of she's, she might be my favorite character of the administration, Border Patrol Barbie. Yes. The White House has labeled the man who was killed in Minnesota as a domestic terrorist. Is that something you agree with? And have you seen any evidence to back up that claim? Violence against a government because of ideological reasons and for reasons to resist and perpetuate violence. That is the definition of domestic terrorism. This individual who came with weapons and ammunition to stop a law enforcement operation of federal law enforcement officers committed an act of domestic terrorism. That's the facts. This is crazy. This is a bit and I want you two to comment because you guys are two A and one A people.

0:12:12 Dave Well, she's literally the cop from Idiocracy. Isn't she? OK, this particular individual, I need to ascertain. I mean, that's exactly that's exactly what she is. What an absolutely vapid character she is.

0:12:24 McAdams Right away to the domestic terrorist label. That's a really crazy label.

0:12:29 Dave You know, I see, I'm probably going to be on a little bit of the other side of this thing than you guys. Like, you know, I'm aware of some of the the issues with ICE, you know, the israelization of American police, seeing the militant. You know, I'm against the militarization of of the police force and all of this stuff. But after the past, you know, 10 years of me being labeled a domestic terrorist, you know, to fuck you. How does the shoe feel now that it's on your foot? That's kind of how I feel, you know? It might be a little bit. And this was in relationship to this Jewish guy that got murdered yesterday.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:13:10 McAdams Italian David. He's not true.
- 0:13:12 Dave Look at the picture. Put the picture up.
- 0:13:14 McAdams I mean, he literally looks like my cousin Lou.
- 0:13:18 Dave I don't know. It's possible. I haven't looked too, too deeply into it. But look, my, my judar was going off on the guy. But, you know, what is going on here with these people? Tim Walls and all of these people we're seeing now, you know, there's these text messages coming out showing that there are members of the Walls administration coordinating some of these anti-ice protests on the ground. And they're feeding these people into the meat grinder. I'm less pissed at ICE for, you know, shooting Renee Good and shooting this other guy than I am at people like Tim Walls and the administration in Minnesota. You know, if we can go black bag Maduro, why can't we black bag these people? Why can't we get someone who's going to tell people to stay home and, you know, deescalate the situation? I don't understand why both sides of this seem to be attempting to instigate essentially a civil war. I don't get it.
- 0:14:21 McAdams That's that we'll get in more into the both sides thing. I think for this, I'm more concerned with Christina, because I, I'm not like sitting here because I mean, I've been labeled, not that I've been labeled a domestic terrorist, but I've been labeled close to it. But I'm not sitting here saying, well, how does it feel to be labeled domestic? I'm more like I'm going to be I'm a close second or third after these people, after they're done labeling these people, domestic terrorists, because I'm not. I'm in the anti probably in the anti-American category.
- 0:14:51 Dave Oh, yeah.
- 0:14:51 McAdams And I'm definitely in the anti evangelical Christian category. So that's kind of where I see it. And so that's why I worry about, you know, the Kirstie Noem saying, you know, he's he he's a domestic terrorist. We're talking about a person that was for all what we can see as of now is that they're exercising their first and second amendment rights. And she's saying that doing that simultaneously actually makes you a domestic terrorist. That's scary.
- 0:15:18 Dave I mean, yeah, the same thing.
- 0:15:20 McAdams Yeah, go ahead.
- 0:15:21 Dave But Caspial said the same thing.
- 0:15:22 Dave I mean, it's hilarious to watch these right wingers, all of these so-called influencers,
- 0:15:28 Dave all of a sudden say the Second Amendment, man, I don't want any of that. You know, it's it's they become a parody of themselves.
- 0:15:35 Dave The let's says, why does any person need to have a military style AR 15 weapon? And now the right is saying, why does anybody need to bring a gun to a protest? You should be able to bring a gun.
- 0:15:46 McAdams Where the hell you want?

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:15:48 Dave I mean, during COVID, we write wingers, brought our guns to church. We brought our guns to mass because we were ready to defend our right to the First Amendment, our right to worship freely with our lives if necessary. So what what is up with the right wingers now all of a sudden looking the government boots? I don't get it. Yeah, it's it's kind of weird, you know, and it's not just COVID. We still carry at my church, you know, we're looking at what's going on in Minnesota, Don Lemon storming the church last week. And, you know, everybody, everybody at our church is like, all right, you're still packing, right? Yeah, yeah, absolutely. You know, because God knows how this is going to spill over. But, you know, man, it's it's it is really wild to see the 180, especially from from cash and from all of these people. But, you know, still we've got Antifa people that are in the streets, whipping people up there on TikTok talking about, you know, hey, this isn't a protest anymore. Bring your guns. We're going to, you know, we're going to start going after these people. You know, the heat is is getting turned up. It's not good. I'm not I'm not pleased with how any of this is going, you know, like, I'm, of course, in the camp where I want 20, 40 million people deported from this country. People that are here illegally. But why are we doing it in such a theatrical way that is antagonizing the left that is drawing this type of confrontation? Why aren't we going in at three o'clock in the morning with no knock warrants and getting these people in the dead of night as opposed to making some big scene about it and hyper edits on TikTok to, you know, amp up, uh, Kristi Noman DHS. You know, this should be done in a stealth way in the same way that Barack Obama was doing it. And to be, you know, uh, fair to Barack Obama, I guess he deported more people in his administration than Donald Trump has so far for all of the show and the fanfare and the fireworks that have been going off. It's like, you know, I actually care about getting these people deported. I would rather not, uh, be stoking a civil war in this country. That's my two cents.
- 0:18:01 McAdams I feel like that's the point is to stoke the civil war. And that's why, or at least some sort of mass discord, because that's one of the reasons why I just can't get behind supporting any of it. Cause I'm like, I just, I'm not going to be a protester and I'm definitely not going to be supporting ICE because it seems like the violence and the divisiveness is the point.
- 0:18:24 Dave I don't, I don't know.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:18:26 McAdams But then, so you mentioned Tim Walts. So, I'll be, I'll be, say the clip went around where, uh, Bondi is like, you know, I worked really hard on this letter. I don't need to play the clip again. It's so enraging. She works very hard on the not Epstein files, but regardless, she writes this letter to Tim Walts. And it's, I think it's borderline extortion. Now I don't like Tim Walts. I think he's like a bag of like, he's not even a bag of mashed potatoes. Like he's like just blah, like he's just so, I don't even know. But Bonnie writes this letter and, uh, in it. So there's some interesting things. This thing is called operation Metro surge, which I thought was interesting. Um, why did it? Why does it even have a name? I don't know why it's called an operation. Then, um, she gets upset about the, the rhetoric being used to Trump's modern day guest stop. Oh, uh, they're being called. And that be that people are saying that they're under attack by Nazis, that the results of these things, these, this rhetoric and the policies, it, it is a national tragedy. It's resulted in a national tragedy. The lawlessness in the streets is matched matched by the unprecedented financial fraud occurring on your watch. And the out of control fraud in your state also implicates election security. It is a tragedy that Americans have lost faith in Minnesota's, uh, ability to keep its taxpayers funds secure and its citizens safe. Then she has three demands. She gives a list of demands. The first one is to share all of their records on Medicaid and food and nutrition service programs. Two is to repeal the sanctuary city policies they have in place. And three, the most important one that I thought was bananas is to give them access to their voter rolls. So Americans are getting killed in the streets so they can have their little political war with the Democrats.

0:20:26 Dave Hmm.

0:20:27 Dave Well, the purpose of the whole thing, of course, it's, it's to, uh, is to foment a kind of civil war where the right hates the left and the left hate the

0:20:34 Dave right. And meanwhile, in the midst of hating each other, you don't realize that a, an absolute surveillance national security state has been constructed all around us.

0:20:43 Dave And as long as we think the other guy's going to get it worse than us, then

0:20:46 Dave we're out there cheering like, like a bunch of idiots. Well, you know, when the penopticon comes, it will have its sights out for all

0:20:53 McAdams of us and there'll be nothing left.

0:20:54 Dave You know, it's like the, um, it's the, uh, it's like the great scene from a man for all seasons, Thomas Moore, where he said that he, he, he asked his interlocutor, you know, would you tear down all the laws, uh, to, to defeat Satan?

0:21:11 Dave And he said, yes, yes.

0:21:12 McAdams But when, when Satan turns at you, when there are no laws left, then you'll

0:21:16 Dave have nothing and I'm doing a bad job of paraphrasing, but that's essentially

0:21:20 McAdams what's happening. See, go ahead, David.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:21:24 Dave Well, what I was going to say, like, I don't understand it, you know, if the department of justice was able to systematically go after all of these people that were present at January 6th, if they were able to have their tentacles in the Charlottesville discord and all of these other, uh, ways that the right wing has been organizing over the last 10 years with constant total surveillance, uh, on us, how is it possible that these leftists are evading, uh, that kind of federal scrutiny? How is it possible that the FBI and the police are unable to disrupt their communications before they go in the street and present for an armed conflict with ice? Why is this being allowed to happen? Um, I guess the people are the people in the administration are incompetent. We saw with Dan Bongino, we've seen it with, um, Cash Patel, Pam Bondi. These people are incompetent.
- 0:22:19 Dave Pete Hegseth is incompetent.
- 0:22:22 McAdams The first thing he did was install a makeup studio in the Pentagon.
- 0:22:25 Dave You know, these people are all about preening, all about how things sound, all
- 0:22:30 McAdams about operation, midnight hammer.
- 0:22:34 Dave You know, this is what it's all about. It's an, it's, it's an, it's an artificial edifice. It's literally, uh, a trunk tower where like, you, you know, everything,
- 0:22:42 McAdams everything looks golden and you, you rub it a little bit and it turns out as
- 0:22:46 Dave completely fake.
- 0:22:46 McAdams It's all, it's bullshit.
- 0:22:48 Dave They can't do this because they are incompetent people. You know, and that's the problem. Yeah. That's, and that's scary. That's, uh, that's the scary part because we're basically, you know, the administration is baiting the left into a civil war. I think Tim Walz, uh, there, there was a clip I saw circulating a couple of weeks ago where he said, you know, we've never been in a, uh, in an armed, you know, uh, conflict with the federal government or something to that effect. And it's just like time out. What the fuck? Like we're going to, we're, we're going to kick off a civil war and you people aren't going to be there to back it up. And the left is then going to go around and they're just going to start executing MAGA types. You know, people that are out there, they're, they're posting on Twitter.
- 0:23:32 McAdams I support ice.
- 0:23:33 Dave I stand with ice, whatever. You're like making yourself a target for these armed anti-fee people to go and pop ya, you know, it's, it's incredible. And by the way, there was, um, it was called operate as far as like operational language or, or titling and operation, uh, domestically, when the FBI and the US marshals went after the weavers, that was called operation northern lights. That's so cool. They, they've been engaging in this kind of, you know, titling, uh, these types of operations for a very long time.
- 0:24:09 McAdams And I just feel like, you know, with all of the surveillance that's going on, just like you said, what, what is Antifa? They don't know where the San Tifa is. Like what is being allowed to happen and what is being encouraged to happen? And what is even real? And what's K-Fee? Like the guy on the TikTok video saying, I'm Antifa. I was like, that's a fed.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:24:26 Dave Like what are we doing here? Yeah. Yeah. Oh, I mean, it's amazing. And there were other videos too, uh, that I saw of people in, in Minneapolis, you know, that are on the streets in front of the cops, shouting about guns, shouting about armed conflict. And it's just like, what planet are you people on? And then of course, you know, I, because I'm a right-winger, because I've got a little, you know, we've been abused over the past decade. You know, I, I sit there and I watch this and I think to myself, how is this guy not getting handcuffed and putting a straight jacket immediately? If I, if I've said anything remotely close to that, I mean, for God's sakes, I got reported and investigated by the FBI for having a Rosary rally, uh, to pray against, uh, the homosexual, uh, gay parade in court of the lame three years ago, they reported me to the FBI for praying. Uh, and, and these people are out here talking about armed insurrection and nothing's happening. They're being organized. It's unbelievable.
- 0:25:26 McAdams Yeah. I should tell you everything you need to know that they're being allowed to do this, why it's happening in Minnesota.
- 0:25:33 Dave Mm hmm. Yeah. And they're, it's gonna, you know, all this, you know, we're, we're gonna see it any minute now, all of these cops, we need Palantir, we need total mass surveillance, we're going to need gate analysis, face, and, you know, one of the things that we're seeing here in Idaho that's happening is, uh, they just, uh, they just introduced a new law. Uh, it's up for debate and a third vote in the house of representatives tomorrow morning at 11 AM.
- 0:26:01 McAdams Oiler alert.
- 0:26:02 Dave To, to criminalize wearing a mask. So we went from, you have to wear a mask five years ago with COVID. Now, if you wear a mask, you're going to be liable to be sent to jail for a year and, uh, find up to $2,500 if you commit an act of hate speech against Israel. That's what's going on in Idaho. Uh, so, you know, it's coming.
- 0:26:30 McAdams Well, I know, I know Dan has to go soon. So, uh, Dan, did you have any thoughts you want to leave us with or anything? Yeah, no, no, I'm sorry.
- 0:26:38 Dave I have to depart.
- 0:26:38 McAdams We originally, we're going to talk an hour earlier.
- 0:26:41 Dave So I apologize for that. That's my, I just, I would just caution, you know, I mean, yeah, we were
- 0:26:47 McAdams kicked in the balls for a long time by the left, but I think it's a bad idea to
- 0:26:50 Dave say, okay, now it's our time to kick you in the balls because both of our
- 0:26:54 McAdams balls are going to be hurt and the state's going to be laughing its ass off.
- 0:26:58 Dave So that's what they want.
- 0:26:59 Dave You know, if you look, I mean, uh, Lenin was in my opinion a genius, but after him, uh, came decades of incompetent idiots who the only thing they
- 0:27:10 McAdams know knew, uh, was the use of force. The same was true in this much shorter third Reich. Um, you had people who were, who were morons and thugs, they couldn't run things. They couldn't, they were the Pam bombies of their time, but the only thing they

- 0:27:23 Dave        knew how to do was to use extreme force, uh, to keep the people in line.
- 0:27:28 McAdams    So I think in many ways, the right and left are doing exactly what the state wants them to do right now, and it'll end up badly for both.
- 0:27:36 Dave        So I don't want to be the turd in the punch bowl here and leave with such a, a negative view, but, um, unfortunately, well, you know, we'll see what happens. So I appreciate coming on.
- 0:27:45 Dave        And again, I'm sorry.
- 0:27:46 McAdams    No, I have to bug out early. Blame David. Thanks, David. Good to see you again, David. Great to see you, Sarah. Daniel, thank you so much for coming.
- 0:27:55 Dave        Thanks.
- 0:27:55 McAdams    Thank you. We don't want hurt balls, David.
- 0:27:58 Dave        No, we don't, we don't, but that's what we're completing.
- 0:28:02 McAdams    Hurt balls. This is why I think this is funny. I think this is a lot of kayfabe. And I think this is a lot of both sides playing us. And the reason, and there's another reason why I think this is us, because we just went over that letter to, to waltz. And then she says, you know, stop calling us Nazis. You're kind of inciting violence. Then don't look like this. Are the agents who were involved still on the job?
- 0:28:27 Dave        Yes, they're, these Border Patrol agents are going to more than likely be on administrative duty, but they were the main Border Patrol agents.
- 0:28:38 McAdams    What does that mean? So they'll be off the streets for a bit?
- 0:28:41 Dave        Not in Minneapolis, they will, but only in Minneapolis here. They'll, they'll be at a different location.
- 0:28:48 McAdams    With respect, it feels as though in some ways you're blaming the victim here.
- 0:28:54 Dave        The victim, the victims are the Border Patrol agents.
- 0:28:56 Dave        I'm not blaming the Border Patrol agents.
- 0:28:58 Dave        The victim are the Border Patrol agents. The suspect put himself in that situation. The victims are the Border Patrol agents there.
- 0:29:09 McAdams    It's the cruelty. It's like the shallow, unnecessary cruelty that makes me think that this is meant to be provocative. He wears the Nazi-esque coat. He does these weird, like content creation things when they're out in the public in the streets. We played it, I think we played it in one of our streams where they're like, they like cue each other. He says to his guys, he's like, walk now. And then they walk and he's like, gas is coming in. It's very like theatrical. And I, and I feel like this is sort of, I'm, I'm acting like a Nazi in
- 0:29:42 Dave        Pam Brown.
- 0:29:42 McAdams    He's like, stop calling us Nazis. We're not nuts. And it's like, it, it's all like, and then the left is doing their thing. And it's like, you know, it feels like a lot of theater is going, he doesn't feel like a real person to me. That's why I'm.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:29:56 Dave Yeah, you know, it's, it's, it's bizarre. And, you know, one of the things that I also wanted to comment on, I'm not sure if you saw the video, but so they, they had this guy was there. He was protesting. Um, he had a gun on him. They, they took the gun out of his, I don't know if it was his holster, his pocket, wherever it was. And the gun itself, it was a SIG P 320. And for, you know, being in Idaho, I'm a gun nut. Uh, and you know, we all, we all kind of are up here, but the SIG P 320 is
- 0:30:27 McAdams notoriously, I don't care, dude. I don't care about any of this. The cops don't know that he was a SIG. I don't care about any of this.
- 0:30:34 Dave There's no, I'm saying when they took the gun out, the cop was holding the gun and the gun went off in the cop's hand. And then the cops fired on the gun.
- 0:30:44 McAdams Five times in the back, dude. Right.
- 0:30:46 Dave They, they heard the SIG go off. And the point is that the SIG has this manufacturing defect where it'll fire.
- 0:30:54 McAdams So now we're blaming SIG power for ice being retarded and trained by the IDF.
- 0:30:59 Dave No, I'm not, I'm not blaming that at all, but it's just like, holy shit. You know, like maybe if we had, uh, you know, gun makers that were making better guns that wouldn't just go off, uh, when you're like holding it the wrong way, that's crazy.
- 0:31:10 McAdams We want to get more gun regulations, David.
- 0:31:13 Dave No, no, no, I just, you know, I want gun makers to make better product. But, um, you know, the, the, the thing with this is that these agents are just not trained, you know, we had a town hall up here, um, yesterday, uh, with our, with our sheriff and some of our elected officials, uh, and come to find out that, uh, was it, uh, ice? Uh, I think it was ice. Uh, they've gone from having one agent in North Idaho to 16 agents in the past year. And they are not trained. The sheriff said that explicitly that these guys have not completed the requisite training. They're not doing that many operations up here because they don't know what they're doing. They are, they lack experience. Uh, and so I can only imagine what's going on in Minneapolis with these people that have just been hired. They've been brought in. They've got relatively zero training. They've been handed a gun, uh, and they're being put into a situation much like was in Charlottesville, uh, between Antifung and the alt right, uh, where you've got this hostile group of people, both sides are looking for a fight. And, uh, you know, uh, they're out here shooting people. Uh, it's, it's wild. It's absolutely wild. It's a fucking disaster, uh, for, for, for all parties involved. And, you know, the real losers are going to be, uh, the people that wanted mass deportations, uh, because this is going to be used in the future to see, oh, see, we can't mass deport people because the Trump administration tried it. And they just wound up murdering people, uh, and being a massive failure. Uh, so, you know, this is just not going well.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:32:52 McAdams I also think there's a little bit of a trap going on here because they kind of allowed the kids, I'll call them the kids to run rampant on Twitter. And excuse me, they've always ran rampant on, on telegram, but all the other apps kind of making their Hitler edits and like kind of. Romanticizing fascism and whatever. And, you know, Hitler was a cool guy and like doing their thing at the Hitler memes. And now the administration is leaning into the Hitler aesthetic. There's things like Homeland for the, you know, uh, Americas for Americans, one of ours, all of yours. That's literally like, it's very interesting. So you kind of like get to like trap these people that were kind of, oh. Yeah.

0:33:32 Dave Well, it's the, uh, it's the Bronze Age pervert, uh, thing that's, that's going on where they've been, you know, uh, as opposed to like actually taking a look at like, you know, I'm probably going to get you in trouble for this, but, you know, David Irving's book, uh, Hitler's war, they, they, they reveal the telegrams and the phone calls that, uh, Hitler did on the night of, uh, the night of broken glass when Hitler found out what they were doing. He's like, stop this, stop. What the fuck are you doing? Like everybody timeout, uh, stop, uh, assaulting the synagogues, like, you know, uh, time, time out here. He tried to pump the brakes on it. And it's like, when you read the actual history of what's going on, you get a much different picture of what was happening back then, but these Bronze Age pervert people are like, no, no, no, he was a genocidal maniac and that good. And now we're going to do it. And it's all in defensive Zion. It's all in defensive. Oh, look at how Bronze Age and based it is to go into Gaza and massacre kids and massacre women and to totally destroy your enemies. Uh, so, so they've, they've taken, uh, all of this World War two revisionism. They've dropped the revisionism and they're just, you know, basically promoting, uh, Hitler, good and everything that, uh, you've been taught about Nazism. Yeah, that's true. And it's based as opposed to saying, you know, time out, maybe things were a little bit different on the, you see what I'm saying. Uh, so it's not good. It's not good. I can't believe the administration is playing into this. And, you know, we're, we're going to see crazy Antifa people, uh, that are going to escalate throughout the country because of this.

0:35:12 McAdams And it actually sets up the narrative to create an Antifa counter up. You know what I mean? You're like, well, if you want to act fascist, now we get to create the Antifa counter up.

0:35:22 Dave Yeah.

0:35:22 McAdams It's like a huge theater.

0:35:24 Dave Yeah. Yeah. And it's going to be Americans that are dead at the end of the day. It's not, you know, it's not going to lead to mass deportations. It's going to lead to dead Americans. And all the while Israel is going to be across the ocean, laughing all the way to the bank as they, you know, institute their board of peace and develop these, uh, resorts on, on the corpses of hundreds of thousands of dead Palestinians.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:35:49 McAdams And here's another example of this sort of performative cruelty. Um, this is in Denver. They were leaving Ace of Spades business cards on people's cars after they abducted them, the Ace of Spades was a card they left on the dead bodies of the Vietnamese, which is a war. Now we all understand was a mistake and that we didn't really win. I wouldn't say that we, I guess we could say we lost, but we definitely left with our tail tucked between our legs. It's just weird to start bringing back this old war time imagery. And I think it's more like what you said, that sort of war is good. Violence is good. It's like this Bronze Age testosterone written like just violence for the sake of violence. There's a lot of that sort of, uh, going on in this. And I think that kind of plays into that. So the next thing is, is I got excited cause I saw in the New York times this article and I said, it says Minneapolis and Gaza now share the same violent language. I said, Oh my God, is someone going to do the thing? So we don't have to do the thing where we compare the idea to the ice and all the thing and let's see how this works. But then I realized the articles Thomas Friedman, cause I thought, all right, all right, well, I'll still give it a shot. I'll still give it a shot. Well, two paragraphs in. Ice is actually a mask.
- 0:37:07 Dave Oh my God.
- 0:37:08 McAdams It's probably being trained by the IDF. They are exactly alike cause they both wear masks. Uh, and they have, uh, that if you place, this is the best part. If you placed a photo of an ice officer next to a Hamas militiaman in the news quiz, I would defy you to tell them apart.
- 0:37:27 Dave What the fuck are we doing here?
- 0:37:30 McAdams Literally, this is the neocons, right? Because they don't want their precious immigrants gone. Hmm.
- 0:37:35 Dave Yeah.
- 0:37:36 McAdams So ice is Hamas cause the neocons are Jewish and they don't want their immigrants gone. I love like examining all these different viewpoints and why they do the things that they do, but this is so neocon. This is such a Jewish neocon viewpoint. Yeah.
- 0:37:50 Dave And you know, I think it would play directly into the hands of people like the mayor of Minneapolis, the Jewish mayor of Minneapolis. I feel like that would be a, um, a narrative that he would, uh, he would support, uh, you know, uh, geez, this is incredible.
- 0:38:08 McAdams Right. That's good. That's interesting that you mentioned that. I don't know about Jacob Price feelings on Israel, but yeah, that makes sense. Right. We begin a kin Hamas and then we can get these sort of leftist shoes involved. They're like, sure.
- 0:38:21 Dave The code pink people, maybe, uh, this can stem a reason to get involved sort of
- 0:38:25 McAdams right.
- 0:38:26 Dave Yeah. Yeah. Unbelievable. And that was New York times.
- 0:38:30 McAdams Yeah. Of course, Thomas Friedman. So I mean, yeah, we all know that ice isn't trained by Hamas. They're trained literally by the IDF. So they have a field office there as, as we all know.
- 0:38:40 Dave Yeah. So again, and this comes out this morning.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:38:44 McAdams This is what I wanted to get into is MTG. While you are being gaslit by the political industrial complex all over social media and the news telling you what you're, you are supposed to be outraged about, think about this. Republicans funded the refugee program by nearly six billion of your taxpayer dollars in the DHH appropriations bill, even though you have been losing your mind about paying for refugee funding when you, while you discovered all the Somali fraud. And the DHS appropriations bill funds all of Homeland Security, including ice. Now you have watched a shooting video probably over 30 times trying to figure out what happened while a near civil war is being fueled in Minnesota. But look past the hype and focus on the granular details. The DHS bill funds both ice and refugee programs. The DHS bill funds doubling H2B visas and deportations at the same time. Do you see how the unit party in Washington funds both sides and then gaslights you and drives you to hate each other? It's all manufactured to drive your outrage. That is how they make money. When the American people stop being baited into fighting each other, the American people will defeat the political industrial complex that divides us all and can work truly to put Americans first. I looked into this bill and she is correct. Wow. 11 billion dollars, 3.8 billion for custody and deportation operations, 85 million to hire additional officers. Ice gets 11 billion. CBP, the border patrol gets 18.98 billion, 5.7 billion for refugees and entrant assistance. So to assist them when they come in and then the doubling the H2B cap, the worker visa program from 66,000, sorry, it's more than double, quadrupling it to 252,282 percent increase. They've literally created a positive feedback loop.

0:40:41 Dave Yeah.

0:40:42 McAdams We'll fund them to come in, then we'll fund the deportations. We'll fund them to come in.

0:40:46 Dave This, I was going to say, this reminds me actually back to our first story talking about this, this new document that came out from HagueSeth because at the end of it, it talks about rebuilding the defense industrial base in America. Right. So like we've been hearing a lot of talk about, oh, well, we need to reindustrialize and we do need to reindustrialize. We do need manufacturing back here at America. But what the administration is doing is focusing on guns, bombs, drones, Palantir, and Doril, all of these different industries, these military industrial industries. And it seems like that's what the administration is gearing forward and subsidizing and looking to rehabilitate America's industrial base. As opposed to like, I don't know, making like actual useful products or phones, computers, things that we use here. We're not doing any of that. We're not doing the chips. You know, we're just going to invade Taiwan for that. No, we're just going to like ramp it up, build bombs. Industrial or militarize the police. It's unbelievable. I can't believe that they're funding both sides of this. Oh, I can, of course, believe that. Holy shit. WMTG for bringing that out.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:42:04 McAdams Right. And the only Republican to vote against it is Massey. Seven, seven Democrats defected to vote with the Republicans for it. Now what happens is, now this is convenient, is that Alex pretty is, is killed by ice. And now the Democrat senators have their reasoning as to why they should not approve it because it still hasn't gone through the Senate yet. That's where things get interesting. And that's why the guys have may have seen these poly market and Cal-C 75, they're going up into the 80% chances that the government will shut down. If the Democrats do not get this or if this bill does not go through, it could shut down the government. Republicans are saying, but you promised and Democrats are saying, well, things changed, someone got shot. And so that's where we're at. Plus we're in the middle of a massive snowstorm and the Senate won't reconvene until Tuesday to vote on Wednesday. So it's just, it's really interesting. And if so, if that passes, it just creates an incredible feedback loop that can keep us all fighting each other for the foreseeable future. Wow. Yeah.

0:43:10 Dave And of course, this is all also happening at the same time. I don't know if you saw just a couple of days ago, Japan dissolved their parliament and the yen carry trade, which essentially the United States has been using Japan as our piggy bank. That has blown up. And so that happening in conjunction with a government shutdown, that's going to be making things pretty tight. Things are going to get a lot hotter, I think. Geez.

0:43:41 McAdams Yeah. So things are pretty, pretty interesting. That's, that's, I think that's all I have. I don't know. Let me see what else I have in here. Yeah, that's it. That's all. Oh, here's the protest. Protests obviously have broken out. So here is that. We just have a few moments here, but it seems to be some smoke is rising. I don't know if these are smoke bombs. It was peaceful when we began to talk and we noted that rhetoric really matters now.

0:44:08 Dave I am just nothing at all. My name is Matthew James.

0:44:12 Dave I'm a Italian aleph.

0:44:16 McAdams I'm a United States citizen.

0:44:39 Dave Hi.

0:45:09 McAdams Fuck you! Stop!

0:45:13 Dave I'm fine.

0:45:15 McAdams I'm not gonna breathe anything.

0:45:17 Dave I'm just angry.

0:45:19 McAdams I'm 70 years old.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:45:21 Dave        Fuck it, I'm angry! Unbelievable. Do you remember during the Tenant Media scandal, there was a document that came out, and it was written in Hebrew. And it was about, because at the time, you know, Tim Pool was stoking the Civil War talk. Do you remember this? And there was a document in Hebrew that talked about how America falling into a Civil War would benefit Israel. Because essentially, with us fighting one another and with chaos here domestically, Israel would basically be able to pursue whatever they wanted when it comes to their Middle Eastern policy with Palestine and whatnot. And considering the connections with ICE, with the training that's been going on, with the convergence between the mayor of Minneapolis and all of this, it seems like they've put us on a road to Civil War. And neither side is backing down. This is incredibly bad for this country.
- 0:46:43 McAdams    Yeah, and I'm looking at all of this, and I know a good bit about Minneapolis. My friend used to live there during the George Floyd stuff. It's obviously a very blue state, but it's, I think it's not as blue-haired liberal as people think it is. It's more demsoc than blue-haired liberal. So I wonder why they choose... Jesus, I wonder why they choose...
- 0:47:07 Dave        He's getting the call, folks. She's getting the call.
- 0:47:11 McAdams    Oh, my God. Oh, my God. So they're coming right?
- 0:47:18 Dave        Write it down, Sarah.
- 0:47:20 McAdams    Jesus, it scared the crap out of me. I don't remember what I was saying. Oh, there's so many immigrants all over, illegal immigrants. There's 4 million between the states of Texas and Florida alone. There's under half a million in Minnesota. You have to ask yourself, why exactly does all of this stuff happen in Minnesota? George Floyd happens in Minneapolis. This happens in Minneapolis. Another shooter in Minneapolis. There was also the Catholic school shooting in Minneapolis, I believe. A lot of things happen in Minneapolis. You have to kind of wonder why and why they're saying, you know, we're not going to go into the agricultural sector. We're not going to go into the service sector. We're just going to go up and fuck with Somalis in Minneapolis. That doesn't... Yeah, exactly. And the freezing cold and the dead of winter.
- 0:48:13 Dave        Yeah. Yeah, this is really weird. And it is. It's going to be interesting to see how this plays out, you know, over the next few months, right? Because it's Minneapolis now, but, you know, where's it going to be next? So they're going to be, you know, doing this kind of stuff in Portland or in, you know, LA during the summertime, you know? It really seems like, you know, and then, you know, God forbid, I've heard people, you know, saying, you know, that if it gets bad enough, if they stoke all of this kind of attention and civil war in the United States, is Trump just going to declare martial law, cancel the elections and retain power this November? Because that could be one path that they may be thinking of. I don't know if that's too larpy or if it's...
- 0:49:00 McAdams    I don't know either.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:49:01 Dave I just get a hand of Thovens tier, but, you know, I've heard people float the idea, you know? So I'm willing to keep an open mind about where this is going. Again, remember, this administration is not actually America first. This administration is not being run by the American people. It's not even being run by, you know, the MAGA base that Donald Trump put into office. This is all being done by Israeli surrogates, by Zogged Up operators that, you know, care more about what's going on in Gaza, in Palestine, than they care about here. And, you know, they're getting incredibly rich and wealthy. This Donald Trump board of peace thing is just a giant money laundering app. It has nothing, you know? So, dark times, you know? America is like getting rug pulled in real time.

0:49:52 McAdams It's really just sad. And that's why I kind of... I'm not a pro-immigration person by any means, but I just can't support anything that this administration does because it's all under the lens of, like, who does this benefit? And, you know, quid pro quo and, like, how much money has Trump made? And it's always like a scandal. And, you know, there's a woman, kind of lawyer, or she's fantastic. She tracks all of the pardons that Trump is doing in secret. They total well into the billions of dollars. It's just all just so much kayfabe. And while this is going on, they're passing bills that fund both sides of the civil war, the civil discord and strife. It's just I can't get behind any of this either side. I'm so much more anti-democrat than I am anti-Republican because they are the worst. They're so feckless when they do finally get power back. They're not going to know what to do with themselves. So, it's not even... These people think we're going to vote our way out of it or even dumber than they are.

0:50:52 Dave No. No, yeah. And that's why it's like, it's so important to get involved at a local level. It's important to cultivate a network around you that sees these things happening. That's going to be smart about how we go forward and, you know, building structures, social fabric, things to make your community resilient. Something that is actually in your control as opposed to engaging in this. It's essentially like sports. It's reality TV politics. It's, you know, I like the Seahawks. You like the Eagles. And, you know, my guys are ice and oh, my guys is Tim Walls. This is, it's bullshit, you know. It's, and it's going to get Americans killed, you know, especially if you don't understand what time it is. This is not 2016 anymore. It's not 2017 anymore. You know, it's not the time to go out and protest and support ice. It's not the time either to go out and be against ice. You're going to get shot. These people are crazy. So, you know, watch, watch and observe and build your own thing around your church, around your friend group. You know, stay, stay out of this stuff. You're going to get, you're going to get hurt.

0:52:09 McAdams What do you think we should do then? Just local?

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

0:52:12 Dave I'm a localist, you know, I think that, you know, the amount and I guess it also, you know, it also kind of depends on what local means to you. Right? Like if you're, if you're a guy like me, like a right winger that was, you know, for Trump in 2016, you care about reducing illegal immigration, but like you're living in the outskirts of Minnesota, I would get the fuck out of there. I would move to a place where the, you know, people like self self segregate, self-bulking eyes, you know, find places in the United States where you have a strong community where you have, you know, the ability to send your kids to schools that you don't have. You know, you have kids to schools that you like, that'll teach them the right things, you know, where you have a church that you can go to, you know, if possible, I would, yeah, move out of the cities. I would get away from these places because they're going to become hotbeds, especially as the weather gets warmer. You know, I really think that we're in for another summer of love. I could be wrong about that, but it's looking like things are escalating.

0:53:19 McAdams What do you think about internationally? Do you think that we just kind of hunker down and try to weather this Zionist takeover?

0:53:25 Dave Well, I mean, internationally is super different. You know, I've got friends in England, Ireland, Austria, but I don't really know what's going on over there, you know. I mean, for sure, Poland is doing a little bit to kind of stand up to this stuff. We've seen videos of Gregor's Brown protesting and doing some good stuff to bring awareness to what has been going on in Israel and, you know, protesting at these European parliaments and whatnot. But yeah, I don't know. I mean, like I think if you're in Russia, you're probably better off. You're probably better off, you know, but yeah, I mean, as far as being in America goes, if you're in the cities, you got to be careful, especially if you've got a family, especially if you've got a family and you're in a city, you got to seriously think about getting the fuck out. That's my, that's my two cents. That's what I did. That's what I did, you know, like I was living in South Bend, Indiana, as these George Floyd riots were going off. And I remember waking up one morning and there was 500 protesters standing outside my window because the cops had killed a black guy six months before I moved into my apartment. They were having a memorial. And it's like, holy shit, you know, like, and the way that these crowds are, you know, even if they are a peaceful demonstration, the crowds can go nuts very, very quickly. They can get out of hand very, very quickly. So, you know, if you're in a place that's seeing these kinds of demonstrations, man, I don't see, I have to push back because I, you know, I think about Europe, right?

0:55:03 McAdams And Serbia. Serbia is, for instance, I was in Serbia when the tragedy struck and an overhang fell out of a train station and it actually killed, I think, 13 people. And the entire country has been in protest since that was over a year ago. Protests, huge, hundreds of thousands of people. And they said we won't stop until we see the changes that we want. And then that's it. And I just, you know, I don't know what else. I just feel like that we should show solidarity when a good one of our people, such as Alex gets murdered. I mean, we're talking about a VA nurse, someone who cared for veterans. It's just like, I don't understand who needs to get killed before people feel bad. Do we all just need to just ignore what ICE is doing outside?

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:55:53 Dave Yeah, I mean, I'm probably like a little jaded with this, you know, because I know people that got shot in the back of the head in Portland for wearing a Trump hat, you know, like, I want these anti-foot people to be rounded up and locked up, you know, I want ICE to be able to do their job.
- 0:56:11 McAdams Alex is an Antifa. He's just a nurse. Well, why was he out there? Why not? Everybody has feelings about this. I do too. Not enough to get me out there maybe because I'm scared.
- 0:56:25 Dave Yeah.
- 0:56:26 McAdams But I mean, there are people that feel incredibly strongly, strong about this, especially when they're pulling people out of their neighborhoods. I would think that especially a medical, someone in the medical field would especially feel super strong about it because they probably know their neighborhood and their community.
- 0:56:41 Dave Yeah, I don't know. I mean, I really can't speak to it. I haven't done, I haven't done any research on the guy's back. Like I said, I thought the guy was Jewish. I saw, I just saw one picture of him. I mean, I was just killing Jews. Like what's going on here? Like that's a narrative change. Okay. Maybe they're going to shut eyes.
- 0:56:59 McAdams Well, I said Hamas.
- 0:57:00 Dave So, yeah, I mean, maybe that explains that narrative a little bit. I don't know. I haven't done enough research into the guy's background, but I mean, I can't carry him.
- 0:57:09 McAdams I don't think his background matters.
- 0:57:10 Dave Hmm. Yeah. Yeah, I don't know. I don't know. I think that, look, I mean, I, I don't know. Look, I mean, I gotta be honest. I think all any of these people that are organizing these protests, they, they should get the January 6 treatment. I don't think they should.
- 0:57:30 McAdams They should become streamers and paid Bukku bucks by BB Ninjahu after. Well, yeah, January 6ers do other all out the streets. The January 6ers are in Minnesota too. They're in Minneapolis.
- 0:57:42 Dave Well, Jay Blank was out there and I found out I did a stream with Christian Secor. He's a real January 6er. He's down in Huntington Beach. He's not doing a, he wrote a book.
- 0:57:52 McAdams Well, that's the thing. There's the real ones and then you have, and that's the thing with this as well. And that just like that, we could be saying, Oh, Alex is could have been a real one. Like, I know people that went to Jan 6 that there's some of them in the chat that are real authentic people that really thought that they were there and they did it. The best of intentions and their hearts were in the right place and nothing about them was violent at all. But that could be the same situation up there. There are people that are violent, that are anti-ice, but I can't say that. I can't say for certain. And I would, I would shy away from saying that Alex was one of them. I would, I would err on the side of being like, he was probably there for the right reasons, just like a lot of people at Jan 6 were. And then we have these retard leftovers from Jan 6 that we still have to deal with that are still causing trouble. And the ones that went there with good intentions are scared silent or they're in obscurity.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 0:58:41 Dave Yeah. No, it's true. And yeah, man, this dude, the Jake Lang stuff is so fucking cringe. Like the, the, the nonsense that he's pulling in Dearborn going around like, you know, insulting Muslims, doing the bacon in a Quran thing, trying to, you know, kick. And, you know, you can see very clearly he's trying to kick off a civil war up in Dearborn at the same time that all of this is happening in Minneapolis. You know, again, I just, I'm very concerned that there are, you know, these types of foreign influences that want chaos in America to make America weak. And, and God knows how the Trump administration is going to capitalize on the thing, whether it be the Insurrection Act, whether it be martial law, canceling elections, suspending, you know, the economy or whatever, but it's not looking good.
- 0:59:31 McAdams Oh, and the report you talked about earlier with the Tim Waltz people, I would look into that because that was broken by Cam Higbee.
- 0:59:37 Dave Cam Higbee, yeah, right.
- 0:59:39 McAdams Came out of Israel straight out of Tel Aviv. Yeah, you know, and that's, that's the thing you can't even, you can't, you don't even know. You're like, that's why I'm like, I can't formulate opinion or choose a side because I have to sift through everything and figure out even what's real and what's not on both sides.
- 0:59:53 Dave Right. Right. It's, it's incredible. Yeah. There's like no independent journal. And the, we talked about this the last stream that I was on with DD Geopolitics here. But the Somalian fraud thing that turned out to be a whole Israeli op too, you know, they were the ones, it's like, how is a 64 IQ Somali and figuring out how to defraud the government. Oh, well, actually, it was this like elaborate money laundering scheme that was devised by like Israel to help their friends in Somali land, which is like what that you're going to like deport Palestinians to Somali land or some bullshit like come on. This is the whole thing is just, it's unbelievable. And we live in this like choose your own reality at this point where you've got people on the one side that are just picking, you know, ice did no wrong. You've got people on the other side that are ice are Nazis and the truth is dead. The truth doesn't matter. No one's getting to the truth of it. It's all narrative.
- 1:00:56 McAdams Exactly. Even look at the left wing influencers, Ed Krasenstein talking about like, it's okay if white people die. And then at the same time, like being bending over whatever backwards for the so him and Elon Musk are fighting. It's like, it's all over the place. It's every influencer on both sides. David needs a little time in our spaces.
- 1:01:17 Dave I do. I've been busy this week though. It's been a, it's been a crazy content week.
- 1:01:23 McAdams It has been a crazy content week. But anyway, I will let you get back to your Sunday with family. But thank you. I'm not sure anybody where they could find you. Are you even, you don't stream on Sundays? Yeah.

DD Geopolitics- The Imperial Boomerang Comes Home to America (Jan. 25, 2026)

- 1:01:33 Dave I generally know I don't. This is, but I'm breaking the rules for you. But we stream on Mondays and Wednesdays and very soon, I think we're going to be, I'm going to be doing a solo show on Fridays. But you can find us at the backlash.net. The backlash.net. We're on X. We're on YouTube. We're on rumble. We're all over the place. We've got Pete Kiniones coming on the show tomorrow on Monday. We're going to be talking about, of course, all of this ice stuff. We're going to be talking about the movement, the right wing and what's, you know, how to prepare. He's of course an expert on the Spanish Civil War. So I feel like that is incredibly. Yeah. What an awesome thing. Like nobody's an expert on that. Yeah. No, no, he is. He is. Yeah. That'll be tomorrow. 2pm Eastern. The backlash.net.
- 1:02:24 McAdams Make sure you go to the backlash tomorrow. Make sure you go to DDGephotics.com. There's also G shirts on there. There's cool stuff on there. It's not all Trump, I promise. And we'll be back on Wednesday. I think Chris will be back. I might do it. I might do a Tuesday night's sneak stream with Syrian girl. We'll see how that goes. But otherwise, I'll see you guys on Wednesday afternoon. Have a blessed Sunday and we'll catch you guys next time. Yeah.
