IMPERATIVE VERBS

IMPERATIVE VERBS

Definition

Imperative verbs are verbs that create imperative sentences, which give commands, instructions, or express requests or directives. These verbs essentially tell someone to do something.

Examples

- Come here quickly.
- Open your books, please.
- Eat your vegetables.
- Drink plenty of water on hot days.
- Read the instructions carefully.
- Wait your turn.
