

THE UTAH TASK FORCE IS SEEKING PUBLIC INPUT FROM THOSE AFFECTED BY THE MMIWG CRISIS

You are invited to submit your statement to the Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women and Girls Task Force of the Utah State Legislature. Please include your name and tribal affiliation with your submission. If you do not wish your name to be recorded, please indicate this when you give your statement and your name will not be included in your statement but your statement will be taken into consideration for the final recommendations and will be available to Task Force members. Information you provide will be part of the Task Force's public record.

801-538-1407

USE THIS NUMBER TO LEAVE A RECORDED MESSAGE AT YOUR CONVENIENCE, BY
NOV. 17 @ 5PM

*We know your story is sacred.
We are here to listen.
We want you to be heard.*

Share your story.

Share the impact #MMIP has had on your family, your community, your tribe, your nation via email, letter, pre-recorded message, or live via the listening session.

All pre-recorded impact statements, letters, and emails must be recieved by November 17 @ 5pm | Please express with your statement if you do not wish your name to be included with your statement once it is presented to the task force.*

EMAIL

mmiwgtf@le.utah.gov

ADDRESS

MMIWG Task Force,
C/O Office of Legislative Research and
General Counsel, 210 House Building,
State Capitol Complex, 350 State St.
Salt Lake City, UT 841033

LISTENING SESSION LINK

bit.ly/2lkPmDQ

case sensitive*

NOV. 18 | 5PM MST | LISTENING SESSION

for more information on the task force visit restoringawcoalition.org