About

Influenced by Cezanne and Modigliani, Stefano's work is familiar to us due to its classic style.

His compositions, whether women, characters or landscapes, are windows that lead us to discover stories in timeless times.

His kind themes give universality to his works, allowing ordinary viewers and experienced collectors, discover, admire, and be part of his artistic universe.

His colorful, cheerful, mature and very Mediterranean palette, get an impressive set of tones like few others.

It is common to see large formats, giving the work a touch of spectacularity, and accentuating the beauty of shapes and colors.

Italian master of classical painting, his art provokes, enchants and transcends.
