Juan Carlos Manjarrez, Mexican neohyperrealism that seduces and falls in love

February 25, 2022 by thecanadian

Juan Carlos Manjarrez is one of the most important protagonists of hyperrealism in Latin America, his participation with a spectacular painting in the prestigious Morton Subastas house, confirms that his art is not only welcome in the international market, but coveted by collectors. This 2022 his work registers a new record in his career, by achieving this Thursday a sale for 250 thousand pesos that, plus 20% of the Buyers Premium, the piece reached the figure of 300 thousand pesos in the bid and enters with the right foot to the global market.
