ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS:

1.Did the commodity distribution vary from your original plan (in terms of the number/location of beneficiaries, distribution partners, monitoring, etc.)? If so, how?

On daily basis we receive request from multiple organization, our distribution plan changes depending on availability of cars for delivery and urgency of need.

2. Were the commodities of the quality and type that you anticipated? If not, please explain.

Product quality as expected. Please see report of uniformity, some sets were incomplete, some were missing toothpaste and/or toothbrush and soap. Since some of toothpaste was past expiration date we had to through it out.

3. Other comments:

Recipients of humanitarian aid were very satisfied with the content, a complete set of quality and hygiene kits. They express their sincere gratitude and appreciation to all the American people, to help the needy citizens of Ukraine. This is reflected in a thank you letter (http://uaoh.international/project-014-um/).

BENEFICIARY STORIES (can be attached on separate page):

When we distributed humanitarian aid to all recipients, they all were delighted. Hygiene kits are very relevant at this time in our situation. Particularly memorable was reaction from children in boarding schools. Their eyes burned with interest, joy and happiness. They opened and viewed sets as-if it presents from Santa Claus on New Year's Eve. Directors of boarding schools expressed special thanks and graduates of children who leave the institutions walls and begin an independent adult life, particularly in need of support. In one of the boarding school a 6-year-old boy got a hygiene kit, he said: "We sometimes get
