Kathrine Osmanova was born with light form of mental retardation and left at birth. At present she is a mother of two children from two different men. Her second boy-friend was an alcohol abuser with violent character. They both lived in utterly unhygienic conditions, accumulated debts for utilities. Children were left without any care: older daughter wore dirty clothes, was hungry. Her youngest child was taken to hospital twice: one time for the reason of severe undernourishment and the second – with pneumonia. He was eventually taken away from her and placed in a state run children's home.

Kathrine has left her abusive husband and now lives in Social Rehab Center "Step to Life" run by Heart4Orphans (formerly Help the Children). She was one of the recipients of the clothes from this shipment.
