Squirrel Head Music is proud to announce the release of Dayna Shereck's latest single, "Hard to Forget."

Working with award-winning producer J.Richard Hutt, "Hard to Forget" is her latest songwriting collaboration, co-written with Carrie DeMaeyer and Juno, CCMA & OCMA award winning independent Canadian Country vocalist Jamie Warren.

Based in Toronto, Dayna took her songwriting passion to Nashville 8 years ago and through her relationship as an unsigned writer with Dan Hodges Music, has nurtured a network of strong songwriting collaborations.

She released her debut EP, "Suitcase Full of Dreams," in 2015 and the same year had her first film placement with her song "Whadaya Say," in the movie "On The Wing," starring Shirley Jones.

In January 2018, "Two Feet On The Ground" and "Chasing The Moon," singles from her second EP "Chasing the Moon," received airplay across Canada with CBC Country. She quickly followed up with the release of a single, "Jane" and her third EP, "Triggered," both in 2019.

Dayna's songs have been included on several independent Country artists' albums and have received airplay across Europe, the United States and Canada. She has been a 2012 & 2013 Semi-Finalist in the International Songwriting Competition, and a Finalist in 2014.

Her newest single takes a nostalgic look back on first memories and feelings of love.

"Real life makes real love... real hard to forget"
