

Dear Colleagues and Partners,

We are pleased to introduce Diana T. Dyste, RPA, as the new Cultural Resources Manager at Sapphos Environmental, Inc.

Ms. Dyste brings more than 24 years of experience in cultural resources management, archaeology, tribal consultation, environmental compliance, and federal and state regulatory processes. Her background spans leadership roles in both the public and private sectors, including extensive work supporting the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA), Assembly Bill (AB) 52, and culturally sensitive resource stewardship throughout California.

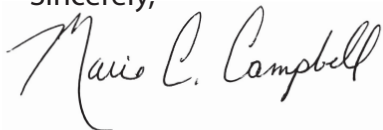

Our Cultural Resources team provides comprehensive historic preservation, archaeological, and Tribal Cultural Resource services for public- and private-sector projects. Our expertise includes historic resource evaluations and nominations, archaeological investigations and compliance support, Section 106 and CEQA documentation, Native American consultation support, construction monitoring, preservation planning, and adaptive reuse and stewardship strategies.

Please visit sapphosenvironmental.com/cultural for a brief qualifications package that includes resumes for Ms. Dyste and the Cultural Resources team, along with one-page summaries of the four cultural resources technical services we provide.

Sapphos Environmental, Inc. appreciates the opportunity to continue supporting your projects and looks forward to working together in the future.

If you would like additional information regarding our cultural resources services or qualifications, please contact us at Culturalservices@sapphosenvironmental.com.

Sincerely,

Marie Campbell
Principal and CEO
