

Rural Recovery Coaching

Full Circle Recovery Community Center is proud to launch a new rural recovery program designed to bridge the gap in recovery services for individuals living in rural communities.

What We Offer

- Peer-based recovery coaching
- Support from individuals with lived experience
- Connection to recovery resources and community supports
- Increased access for individuals facing barriers such as distance, transportation, or limited local services

Who This Program Is For

- Individuals in recovery living in rural areas
- Community members seeking recovery support

Need Help Getting Back On Your Feet?

If you're affected by opioid or stimulant use and need essentials like clothing, shoes, work boots, or hygiene items, we may be able to help. See a recovery coach today.

Our mission is to Expand Pathways of Recovery that empower people to embrace their full potential.
