Your home should be a reflection of your life and your style. A place that's more than four walls and an address. A place that speaks to your passions and pursuits. Donna Labbé knows and appreciates the beauty of homes that exude quiet elegance and thoughtful details.

While serving the Northwest area, Donna, a HAR 5-Star agent, has been one of the top agents for eighteen years. 94% of her business comes from repeat clients and their referrals. With a tenacious work ethic, Donna is in constant communication with her clients as they go through the process of buying or selling.

"Having customers for life is my goal, and working full time in real estate, I make sure I know what is happening constantly in an ever changing market," Donna told us. She fully embraces the rising prevalence of technology in this industry and recognizes how it helps her clients in a competitive market.

Beyond her expertise in Real Estate, Donna is proud to be a mother of two grown boys, a wife of thirty years and a lover of all dogs. Whether you are buying or selling, count on Donna Labbé as your partner in Real Estate.

2. Pillows Included – Pillows add color and character without making a porch visually heavy. Perch them on a bench or swing or other seating as an easy update.

3. Practical and Pretty – Use color and fabric to make furniture not only practical but pretty too. Make sure you have a spot to place your glasses, or a glass of tea.

4. Plants and More Plants – Nothing makes your porch look more inviting than buckets of flowering plants. Don't need huge containers, even a small pitcher on a table with petunias make a inviting porch. 🇺🇸

Your Social Front Porch

No matter how small your front porch is, you can make it one of the most social places to sit and visit with neighbors. Use these simple tips to make your porch a new social room:

1. Smaller furniture – Sized-down outdoor furniture can prevent a space from feeling overwhelmed. Look for round, accent-size tables. For seating, choose comfy chairs without arms and small benches.

A Backyard Orchard

Let the fruits of your labor pay off for you with low care trees that give your yard not only beauty and shade, but a wide range of delicious fruit. For less than an hour or work, a fruit tree will reward you year after year with abundant crops. Now is the time to plant most fruit trees.

The top fruit trees for our area are:

- | | |
|------------------|-------------------|
| Peach | Plum |
| Muolberry | Figs |
| Persimmon | Lemon |
| Orange | Pear |
| Plum | Grapefruit |

Check with your nursery on which trees will take some temperatures below freezing and which need a more tropical climate before you plant. 🇺🇸
