

*Motivational and Educational Programs Designed,
Facilitated and Proven to Help People and Companies
Look Better, Feel Better and Make More Money.*

The Investment

Before you invest in a new computer, delivery truck or even new office furniture, consider investing in the most valuable and important asset that your company has... its people. At PTI, we are committed to helping you and your company:

Look Better

Our motivational and educational programs are designed, facilitated and proven to help people and companies achieve a healthier self-image and professional reputation. We do this by cultivating positive attitude and behavioral changes that have both short and long-term desired outcomes.

Feel Better

PTI turns people into performers. "Performers" that set and achieve goals, have a positive attitude and live happy, healthy and productive lives. A healthy life starts with a healthy attitude.

And Make More Money

Peak personal and business achievement occur when a person has the knowledge, strength, will and persistence to outthink, out plan and outperform the competition. Only the "performers" that have these traits will truly differentiate themselves from all others and earn what they are really worth. Let PTI show you how to gain the attitude, skills and traits necessary to win in business and in life and earn what YOU are really worth!

Mikeal R. Morgan
President
Phoenix Training Innovations

"Your entire organization will look better, feel better and make more money!"

Mikeal R. Morgan grew up in a world defined by poverty, illness, violence, and ignorance. But he did not let that world define him.

Instead, he combined the lessons he learned with business acumen and a love of serving others to rise through the ranks of the corporate world. Mikeal has successfully led teams in multiple industries and specializes in rebuilding and leading underperforming teams through periods of change and uncertainty. He now shares what he's learned through books and public speaking.

He focuses on strategies that are simple to understand and easy to implement. These strategies turn people into performers.

Mikeal is a husband, father of five, and President of Phoenix Training Innovations, a company dedicated to helping people and companies look better, feel better, and make more money.

What sets Mikeal apart?

He does more than inform and inspire-- he moves people to life-changing action. Mikeal boldly leads a life of faith, purpose, and love that leaves a legacy of value. Contact Mikeal at www.mikealmorgan.com.

Phoenix Training Innovations is a motivational speaking and training organization. We specialize in delivering world-class speeches, high impact sales and leadership training and the best B2B prospecting programs in the country. PTI also designs and delivers a number of leading programs proven to help children.

Our programs work because we are results oriented but change focused. We shape your team's behaviors, habits, attitudes and skills with simple, custom and affordable programs that are directly in line with your company's goals, needs and specific challenges.

The Past:

Phoenix Training Innovations was founded in 2004 by Mikeal R. Morgan to excite, inform, involve, and inspire people and companies to reach their full potential and succeed faster. Innovative approach, unrivaled passion, years of experience, and the talent to turn training and motivation into business results is what gave PTI its start in the training industry.

The Present:

Today we remain diligent and focused on our commitment to integrity and excellence. Our purpose to exceed expectations and deliver only the highest quality products and solutions provides PTI positive daily momentum. With each passing day, we grow our business portfolio, our team, and our passion for helping others look better, feel better and make more money.

The Future:

Moving forward our goal is to simply stay true to our core values of innovation, integrity, enthusiasm and the quest for excellence in its simplest form. Phoenix Training Innovations will continue to help companies grow in size and market share and because of this we will do the same!

Our Programs are:

- ✓ Proven with 100% of all graduates achieving measurable improvement within 30-60 days.
- ✓ Customizable to fit your industry, company, specific needs, challenges and your overall expectations and goals.
- ✓ Exciting and transfer the knowledge, skills and motivation required to increase productivity, performance and profitability.
- ✓ Convenient, because the program is facilitated on site, at your place of business, event or location of your choice.
