The insurance is only for the cover for which You have a Certificate of Insurance and only for the period of cover indicated on the certificate. It is subject to the conditions contained in the Policy and Certificate of Insurance.

If two or more persons are named as the policyholders on the Policy, each of them is responsible both individually and together for:

- (b) Compliance with the conditions of the Policy.

The law requires You to tell Us everything You know (or could reasonably be expected to know) that is relevant to Our decision to give You insurance and on what terms. You must tell Us these things before We cover You and every time You renew a Policy.

You must tell Us immediately if any of the information You have given Us changes.

Our entering their names on the Policy or paying any claim to them does not make You an agent or trustee for them or assign Your rights and interests.

1. WHAT YOU MUST DO

If Your Car is lost, damaged or involved in an Accident, no matter whether this would give rise to a claim, You must:

This condition in its entirety is a condition precedent to liability and failure to comply with any of the above requirements in respect of any accident and/or an occurrence will result in You or Your Authorised Driver being denied indemnity under both Section 1 and Section 2 of the Policy in respect of that particular accident and/or occurrence.
