

COURSES IN VEDIC ASTROLOGY

In line with its objective of disseminating information and encouraging the spread of Vedic Astrology for the betterment of mankind, BJS conducts classroom as well as distance learning courses so that all interested may benefit irrespective of their geographical location.

Classroom Courses

The classroom courses are presently conducted in Bangalore and Mysore under the aegis of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan. These are weekend courses designed to accommodate a student or working person. This course does not assume any pre-knowledge of Astrology - however, exposure to pre-university level mathematics is a prerequisite. >>> details

Distance Learning Courses

Distance learning courses are designed so that astrology aficionados not located in proximity to our classroom venues are not at a disadvantage. In fact, many overseas enquiries are also being received. >>> details

Short term related Courses

Short term courses of six to eight weeks duration are offered from time to time depending on the requests from students. These are specialised areas which do not form part of the regular course syllabus but are useful as part of an astrologers tools and training. Some of the courses do form part of the syllabus but are offered as refresher courses as part of a continual learning program.

Online Courses

We also conduct online courses on Vedic Astrology through Skype which will be of Short/Medium/Long term duration which basically involves knowledge of Vedic astrology for personal reading in short term course, advanced reading in medium level and professional astrology in long term courses.
