

3 Treasures Acupuncture presents a Spirit Voyage to

Majestic India!

March 9-20, 2023

(arrival and departure dates)

$850

+$85 optional Holi festival add-on

Acupuncture Humanitarian Medical Clinic in Rishikesh
Plus experience the Taj Mahal (one of the 7 wonders of the world)
Optional add-on: HOLI (the festival of colors) (hotel only)

Non-refundable deposit of $350 due 10/30/2022

Volunteers will complete aprox. 30 clinic hours
Professional LAc receives 10 PDA/CEU hours for NCCAOM

* (once every 4 year renewal cycle they allow humanitarian volunteer credit)

Please note: Rishikesh is a sacred place and there is no meat or alcohol in the town. It is a quiet retreat to restore your spirit through seva (selfless service) and meditation/yoga if you choose.

This price includes: Airport & group ground transfer, all accommodations, breakfasts, some meals, acupuncture supplies & supervision, some sightseeing excursions

This price does not include: Airfare, visa, some meals, nor airport transfer if you arrive independently of the group (2 day hotel for Holi is an optional add-on $85)

Please contact Sami Rank, L.Ac. for more details:

602-350-6506

Registration packet and info can be downloaded at www.samirank.com

Sami Rank, L.Ac. received a MS degree in TCM from Yo San University, and her BA from USC. She has been practicing for 20 years, and is on faculty at PIHMA College in Phoenix, AZ where she is a professor and clinic supervisor.

*This trip is run by 3 Treasures Acupuncture and Sami Rank, L.Ac. There is no affiliation with PIHMA College.
Space is limited.*