

JOSEPH HURLEY A.I.A.
107 N,E, 44th Street
Seattle, WA 98105
jhurley@josephhurleyarchitects.com

EDUCATION

University of Oregon
Masters of Architecture

Eugene, Oregon
June 1997

Georgetown University
Bachelor of Arts; Major: Economics, History

Washington, D.C.
June 1987

EXPERIENCE

Firm Principal; Joseph Hurley Architects
Engaged in the design of single and multi-family residential projects. Designed and managed the DR process for Thomas Street Townhouses (w/Bruce Rips) and Barton Street Lofts (w/Shelley Bolser)

Seattle, Washington
March 2003 to Present

Project Architect; Johnston Architects
Designed and managed single and multi-family projects.

- Lead designer and manager of Fremont Lofts project.

Seattle, Washington
January 2001 to March 2003

Project Architect; James Cutler Architects
Produced schematic and construction drawings for residential and institutional buildings.

- Managed residential projects.
- Coordinated introduction of CAD to the office.

Seattle, Washington
March 1998 to January 2001

Drafter/Designer; Driscoll Architects
Worked in all phases of a production-oriented design firm.

Seattle, Washington
August 1997 to March 1998

Graduate Teaching Fellow; University of Oregon
Taught sections in Spatial Composition and Building Enclosure.

Eugene, Oregon
December 1996 to June 1997

Carpenter; Constructive Energy, C.L.P, Self.
Worked in all phases of light-frame construction.

Seattle, Washington
December 1988-August 1993

Commercial Fisherman; F/V Keren, F/V Quandary
Deckhand/Deckboss on highlining salmon boat.

Bristol Bay, Alaska
Summers 1989-1997

REFERENCES

Bill Parks; Crocus Development
Marty Liebowitz; The Madrona Company
Jim Cutler; James Cutler Architects
Charlotte Yoakum; Skipper, F/V Quandary

206.605.3279
206.325.0422
206.842.4710
206.284.8444