

Join fellow residents of Lido Key at the Florida Studio Theatre on January 8th at 7:00 pm for a performance of “SOMETHING ROTTEN” takes place in Shakespeare’s time when two brothers who are trying to compete with the Bard seek the advice of a soothsayer. The soothsayer assures them that the next big thing in plays is to add music, singing and dancing. Together they begin to compose the world’s first musical. Due to a fairly large misunderstanding on their parts, hilarity ensues.

This musical was nominated for 10 Tony Awards.

Tickets are $55 each. This includes your ticket AND a reception following the performance (cash bar).

If you wish to exchange an already purchased ticket to attend on this date, a cost of $8.20 will be added to pay for your attendance at the reception.

To purchase tickets, use the link:

<https://tickets.floridastudiotheatre.org/somethingrotten/64503?promo=lido>

- OR if you do not wish to go online you can call JT Priar at 941.366.9017 ext 347
- OR if you wish to exchange an existing ticket to this date, you will need to contact JT Priar at the number above.

Lido Key residents will have exclusive access to these tickets through December 27th or until sold out, whichever comes first.

