MIDSUMMER NEWS

(Because "stuff happens" even in summer)

Dear Ladies of the Club,

Even in this hot, humid weather, when I barely dash outside to water a pathetic plant and get back in as fast as I can, there are beautiful gardens all around town.

One of those gardens belongs to Johdie and Doug Grieve at 708 Ann Street and is our July Yard of the Month. It is lovely!

Please drive by in your air-conditioned car to admire it!

Beaufort Garden Club CHAT Room,
Tuesday July 23, 10-noon, rsvp
BGC.carolremy@gmail.com

My home 167 Gibbs Ct.

Let's chat about the jumble sale, ideas for classes or workshops, public art, our work for the town and BHA, our day trip, maybe consider an overnight trip (Williamsburg or Virginia garden week?), Beautification library project, ideas for Cedar Street Park or any other ideas you may have.

Letter from the President

Friends,

I hope you and your gardens are enjoying this very hot summer! My flowers look good, but I'm feeling a bit wilted!

Although we are not having our regular monthly meetings, the board is at work planning the 2019-20 year. We met with committee chairs and a few newer members and got their feedback and ideas. The CHAT ROOM planned for July 23 is another opportunity for you to share your thoughts. Or you can just email your suggestions.

A big thanks to everyone who participated in flower arrangements for the Old Homes Tour. We received many compliments.

Special thanks to Margaret Brock for coordinating with BHA and housemothers to find the perfect colors and shapes for many of the homes.

I also want to give a special thank you to Deborah Van Dyken for her leadership last year and for staying on as my advisory co-president. Deborah's guidance and planning and support made it much easier for me to step into this role.

I know many of you are tired of hearing me talk about ad sales but this income will allow us to take on an extra project or 2, or simply offer more activities at a lower cost. I'm already talking to Judy Mercer about holding 2 flower-arranging classes. I know many members, like myself, lack confidence in this area. So please consider asking a friend in business to run an ad.

Stay cool!

Carol

Ad spaces for our 2019-20 Membership Directory are on sale now. We are only selling 1/2 page and full pages for $50 and $100 respectively.

And I know it seems early, but you can renew your membership on line just any old time, and you'll be done with it for a whole year! No more scurrying around in September!
