

Beaufort Garden Club General Meeting Minutes - November 3, 2022

Refreshments were served from 9:30-10:00 in the Ann St. Methodist Church Annex. President Cindy Cash, opened the meeting at 10:00. The pledge of allegiance and the Club collect were recited. Guests were introduced and the refreshment committee was recognized.

Sharon Miller asked to be notified if anyone needed a card from the Sunshine Committee.

Cindy recognized the club's lifelong members, Pretty Ladies Committee and all the members who have belonged for many years. She stressed the importance of introducing yourself to new members in the future.

Minutes from the October meeting were accepted as written, with the correction of Sharon Miller's name.

Cindy reminded everyone of the following upcoming events: cornucopia workshop, Fort Macon hike, and the Garden Club trip on June 1,2 to the triangle area. Barbara Sullivan will be in Beaufort March 10,11 to promote her new book, Gardens of the Triangle. There will be a reception at the Inlet Inn on Friday night, March 10 to which lifelong members and sponsors are invited. She will speak at a luncheon at the Dune's club on March 11 sponsored by the Beaufort Garden Club, The Native Plant Society and possibly the Pine Knoll Shores Garden Club.

Lottie Tharrington and Marilyn Green reminded everyone to bake for the Jumble Sale on November 19. They encouraged members to sign up to work at the sale. Drop-off for baked goods is November 18 at the Beau Coast club house from 4:00-6:00.

Jane Saunders and Lynn Mauze discussed the wreath making details for our December meeting. Please come at 10:00, with a soup lunch to follow at 11:00.

Carol Remy announced the printed directories will be at the December meeting. She still needs some pictures of members.

Cindy introduced the guest speaker, Sarah Spengler. She gave a presentation on coastal resilience.

Door prizes were announced by Glad Atkins.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:10.
