

Beaufort Garden Club General Meeting Minutes - October 6, 2022

Refreshments were served from 9:30-10:00 in the Ann St. Methodist Church Annex. President, Cindy Cash, opened the meeting at 10:00. We recited the pledge of allegiance and the Beaufort Garden Club Collect.

Cindy asked for any corrections to the September minutes. There were none and minutes were approved as written.

Guests were introduced.

Lottie Tharrington discussed the bake sale portion of the BHA Jumble sale. The sale will be held on the BHA grounds on November 19. Baked goods are to be dropped off at the Beau Coast club house November 18 from 5:00-7:00.

If you want your picture in the BGC printed directory, please pay your dues by today.

Monica Hunter, chairperson of the Pretty Ladies Committee, explained their responsibilities and encouraged people to join them.

Sandy Gardner, Sunshine person, encouraged people to let her know if anyone in the club needs a card.

Cindy announced that Beverly Glover Wood is stepping down as the News Bud Correspondent.

Rita Tomlinson announced the next hike will be Tuesday, October 11 at Hammocks Beach State Park in Swansboro at 9:45 with lunch to follow.

Adaline Talbot is planning an overnight bus trip on June 1,2 to see the NC State arboretum, Sara Duke gardens, and more. The accommodations will be the 21C Hotel in Durham.

The speaker, Carol Peoples, was introduced by Mary Kathryn Cooper. She presented an informative lecture on native plants.

The plant swap followed the lecture.

Door prizes were awarded.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30.
