Products and Services

All audio/video projects are welcome, large or small ...

- Capture a one-on-one or panel interview as an outline for a fully curated biography
- Focus fully on your guests while we catch and preserve precious, candid moments of celebrations:
 - family reunions
 - class reunions
 - milestone birthday parties
 - anniversary celebrations

Services at hourly rates ...

- Get a helping hand with technology: a basic consultation could help bring your own unfinished projects, ideas, and wish lists to vivid completion.

*Do you already have your own footage and clips?
Too many videos and images in your phone to count?
Running out of storage space?*

Make selections a la carte! Compile your existing videos and clips into a custom, artful, shareable documentary-style heirloom.

- Craft a tribute: it can be agonizing for families to write a eulogy when their hearts are grieving. Important life events and details can slip our minds under stress, and it is profoundly difficult to condense a lifespan into a few paragraphs. It may ease their burden to draft a 100% typo-free memorial in advance.

- Write a memoir: we can transcribe the audio portion of your biography to share with the readers you love. Use it as a framework to keep writing new chapters!

Custom, handmade greeting cards, invitations, announcements, and more ...

Handwritten letters and greeting cards reach the hearts of our loved ones in ways that texts and emails cannot. But finding just the right card can be time-consuming and sometimes disappointing, especially when in-store options are dull, unsuitable, and not worth the price.

Instead, we carefully scan precious photo images you choose and reprint them to create unique, personally tailored greetings. For example, a recipient's baby picture is worth a thousand words of sentiment, especially on the milestone birthdays of adulthood. Have one ready to send for each upcoming birthday in your family. Send a vintage wedding photo for anniversary wishes, kindergarten pics for graduations, silly snapshots just to say, "remember this?" Think of the possibilities you already own! An occasion-specific message you choose can be printed inside, if desired. Reprints are then sized, enhanced, and artistically applied to quality card stock to convey a more personal, meaningful message they'll treasure. Special orders of any quantity are welcome ♥
