

MEET THE INSTRUCTOR

Ruth Conrad

Ruth J. Conrad is currently a certified K-8 teacher, who recently retired after teaching 6th Grade Science at Eloy Junior High School. She is a proud graduate of Grand Canyon University (Bachelor of Science in Applied Management) and Arizona State University (MEd). She completed her provisional endorsement in Gifted Education. Facilitating learning is her passion. While employed at Eloy Junior High, she established a reading program to get students excited about literacy and involved parental accountability in the home to document progress among the students. During her career, she created a “Reading Buddy” program with 6th Graders reading weekly with 2nd graders which was richly received at Santa Rosa Day School on the Tohono O’odham Nation. She remains actively engaged in teaching as a substitute teacher for SWING and ESI, LLC in Pinal County.
