How We Worship

We are a group of imperfect people who come together to help each other strengthen our connection with God and each other. In worship we do this by greeting each other with genuine interest and care for one another.

- * We sing to God with a spirit of thanksgiving.
- * We pray together to give thanks to God for what he has done for us and to ask for His help for those who are in need.
- * We take communion to celebrate the life of Christ, remember His sacrifice, and take comfort in His promise to come back for us.
- * We listen to the preaching of God's Word to deepen our knowledge and challenge us to better reflect Jesus in our lives.
- * We give from our hearts to support God's mission of reaching our community for Christ.

"God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." John 4:24 (ESV)

A CALL TO ENDURE 2025 THEME HEBREWS 12:1-3

1 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. (KJV)

"Teaching Dads"

by 249 Church Of Christ

"Hear, O sons, the instruction of a father, and give attention that you may gain understanding" Proverbs 4:1.

There is much said today about fathers. We hear about "absent fathers" or "deadbeat fathers." Sitcoms frequently portray fathers as clumsy and clueless. Yet the Proverbs are quite clear on the vital role the father plays in the lives of his children. In this text, there are three key points made.

First, a father should instruct. Of course, there are fathers who fail in this great responsibility. They leave this vital instruction to mom, the church, or the school. The apostle Paul said: "And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger; but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4).

Second, when a father instructs, the son should hear. It is true that some fathers fail to instruct. Yet there are many times that the father does instruct but the son is not a willing listener. There are so many "voices" in the world today that demand attention.

There are the voices of the son's peers (Proverbs 1:10-14), the voices of immoral women (Proverbs 7:10-18); the voices of earthly wealth (Proverbs 8:10-11).

Today we hear the voices of rock stars and movie stars. How have these people earned the right to instruct our children?

They haven't, yet many hear them, nevertheless. The son needs to be discerning (Proverbs 1:4) and to listen to the voices of wisdom.

Third, when the son does hear, it should make him intelligent. The father in the book of Proverbs is a good, godly man.

His instruction is based upon the words of God (Proverbs 2:6) and upon his own years of experience. Therefore, the son, when he listens (and heeds) will "gain understanding."

There are many sons out there who say their father was the single greatest influence on their lives. There are also those sons who remember well the instruction of their father, instruction that they chose to ignore. Now they are paying the price of that choice.

Dads, let us not lose heart. We must press on in this most important work of teaching and training our children (Proverbs 22:6). Sons, learn to be discerning. Weed out those voices of fools and hear the voices of those who truly care about you and your spiritual development.
