

Paper: Assisting Those Awakening to Tragedy

Date: 16 Mar. 2026

By: D. R. Shearer

Topic: At this time on our dear planet it is certain that the truth will continue to emerge to a definite, unique conclusion.¹ Therein lay the difficulty for a planet that has continued, and struggles to continue imposing falsehood upon its societies.² While many be uncertain about what is written so far it can be demonstrated that the abrupt realization of this truth emergence is now at the dawn of an enhanced threshold - this will produce devastating realizations, for many, as time marches on.

Introduction

When truth emerges in a society that relies on illusion for survival, the phenomenon can be thought of as birthing pains. That is the birth of TRUTH.

Many are resisting this transition, primarily because the whole process has been normalized during our entire lifetimes and prior. But that doesn't make it any less of an illusion. And it certainly doesn't mitigate any troubles or disasters that are inherent to the process that is the conversion. I can attest here that the false nature of our accepted existence produced intuitive & resistant responses, since the early days of my own life. Many will understand what this feels like, having gone through them as well.

Important: But this paper isn't about right & wrong, or retribution/vindication, because these ideas are counter productive if one is to maximize their potential relating to their own life journey, during this sometimes troubling time. The only pertinent thing to say about this, before proceeding, is that "Everything will be OK" when assisting ones through what may be interpreted as devastating or troubling times. This is what this paper is about – standing firmly with the truth as the ultimate panacea.

There are many ways to apply the truth and traverse what is occurring at this present time.

What follows is one of the ways to successfully accomplish this crucial upcoming path, for any who choose the task. Whether you are someone who is here to assist others or you need assistance for yourself, these are the components of a smooth transition:

Step 1 – Courage

This is the one tool that if taken up, will see an individual through what they may consider to be the worst of times. Some folks will already possess the courage necessary to transition through this phase and others may need to dig deep to find it and strengthen it.³ The assistance of friends and family are obviously of tremendous benefit for this task and all that follows. This is the primary key because we have been led astray, in many cases, from the Reality – we are all one. Division has been the tool that can be demonstrated throughout history and remains to be the obstacle when eliciting assistance from others around us.

Step 2 – Accessing and Standing With Truth

It can also be easily demonstrated³ that no matter what the difficulty, siding with truth will always be the path to peace & freedom. This does not imply that the road will be easy in every case. Indeed, when one faces the facts, there may be many levels of uncertainty – especially when it comes to matters such as income, social status, peer groups and many preconceived notions of reality. This is where the first tool, courage, comes into play.

There is much more that can be stated about allowing the truth to enter one's life² so I will only add this: messages are there to guide us to freedom & peace. These messages are directives to follow the truth and they may come by way of people, documents (like this one), articles or directly by way of the intuitive impulse. Denying these messages without at least investigating a little bit, to confirm such guide stones, is how we get ourselves into trouble in the first place.

So the bottom line with the truth is, that if we both allow it into our life and/or put a little effort into realizing what is presented, then we are securely on the path to making it through whatever trouble may be present. It is in this way that the truth will provide peace & freedom at the end of the day if not immediately.

Step 3 – THIS Unique Time Period

It is when an individual recognizes that the irregularities of the current times signify a momentous event in human evolution - the opportunity also arises where strength can be drawn from it. While this concept may be somewhat abstract for many, the actual circumstances of this phenomenon lend itself, in a great way, to assist many, at this time. Along with the certain emergence of truth, as proclaimed above, also occurring is the collective, coordinate emergence of Love. Love & Truth go hand-in-hand.

And the collective embodiment of Love on the planet, right now, in spite of perceived opposition to this claim, again can be expanded on and authenticated. You may not get the message on the main stream media channels. But if you open your heart to it, the benefit will be ascertained. It is this collective embodiment that is present to assist everyone, not just the downtrodden, through this momentous time.

Step 4 – Forgiveness, Judgment & Persecution

With the foundation that has been laid so far in this document, the next logical step would be alignment with all that is. A unique time period in human evolution brings forth unique opportunities at the same time.

Many folks are already undoubtedly aware that judgment & persecution are not within the operational parameters of the sons & daughters of a vast Universe. And some may also know that the explicit tool of forgiveness is exactly that – a powerful tool to free oneself from the damaging effects of hatred, vengeance and retribution. This important realization will become stronger and easier to embrace as we move through this emergent time period.

In other words, while some of these items may seem foreign or awkward at this time, it is time that will allow them to assist in navigating the unusual waters of a higher reality. Patience, at times is the virtue here.

Conclusion

I will leave you with a few shifting perspectives:

1. There will be a time in the near future where a higher level of truth will be universally crucial to all. You can find some details of this here:

2. If you find yourself basically symptom-free while noticing that many around you are not, then understand that there is a reason for this. And if you are inspired to consider detox protocols to assist in the removal of any symptoms, then there is a comprehensive paper on this tab:

3. And lastly, here is a useful & powerful quote from the Bible KJV:

Galatians 5:22-23

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,...
Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.”

Everything is overseen by Divine Grace as we all choose our own path by utilizing our own powerful free will. And all of us, on some level, are subject to what is longsuffering. Some of us feel more direct effects of this condition. While others, based upon their lifestyles and other things, have been seemingly spared, but are still enduring many of the effects of longsuffering, at some level.

But, more importantly, we all possess the free will to choose love, joy, peace, gentleness, goodness & faith.

These are the components of the new Earth that we are all moving towards.

If you can find these attributes within your own mind & heart then please embrace them.

Join us and let us create the new Earth together.
