

Paper: FEAR & GUILT – Choose the Freedom Path Instead.

Date: 14 Dec. 2023 (rev. 03 Oct. 2024)

Topic: Anyone who has sought to control a population has done so, largely by the use of fear & guilt. The way that this is accomplished is with propagandized falsehoods and the use of repetitive content. Fear & guilt are primary casualty providers and profit & control are the rewards of those pushing them. The good part of this scenario, however, is that both fear and guilt are falsehoods. So the simple remedy then, is that it is necessary for the individual to dig down and expose the false foundation that lay within these media stories that generate fear and/or guilt.

Introduction

Effective and beneficial assistance given to a population that has been guided/coerced into the depths of fear & guilt does not need to go into the myriad ways of those who have been responsible for such misguided governance. However, a few brief notes on the topic may be useful to begin the dismantling of such fear/guilt, given the iron grip such manipulation has achieved.

The notions of “germs in the air” or the possibility of “a 0.04% CO₂ concentration in our atmosphere being the cause of the destruction of humanity” are two false notions that happen to be in alignment with the acronyms that also seem particularly fitting,

FEAR – “False Evidence Appearing Real”

GUILT – “Generated Ubiquitous, Incessant Lies - Totalitarianism”

The Path of Relief

Relief from the baseless generation of fear and/or guilt is had by a straight & narrow path that simply calls the propaganda campaign for what it is. The problem is that (Western) society is built on this false foundation where many are participating in the implementation & promotion of such a state of affairs. There is, however, a motivating factor, currently available, that will ultimately create the urge to lasting relief from the fear/guilt generation program. That factor is human & environmental disability, destruction &/or death. While this may seem to be a dire consequence of false actions, it is recognized that a wilful choice to actually stop the allegiance to falsehood, is rarely a possibility, leaving these dire consequences to be the only path/result.

Current Day Procedure

What has come to light during the past 55 months is the complete control of mainstream media by those with the financial capabilities to do so. One only need to observe this phenomenon present in our societies to witness the effects that complete falsehood has, streamed into the lives of the masses, on shaping their reality. [This is easily proven – 03 Oct. 2024] Unprovable theories with claims of scientific backing are all that is needed to unconditionally move the masses into confirmed states of fear and/or guilt. Academia supports it; the masses believe it.

The Calibration of the Two – GUILT

On the chart of the 17 Levels of Consciousness (see refs.) guilt comes in as the second most futile of human positionalities (level 30, just ahead of Shame, in the basement @ 20!). The drive to push humanity to this crippling low level makes it the choice pick for those controlling society. Historically, religious guilt has been a big ticket item as many millions have bought into this falsehood contributing to the decline of civilizations.

Current day globalist campaigns still pound the guilt narrative in both of the popular driver hoaxes – “viral pandemics” and “climate change”. Interestingly, fear is also worked into both of these platforms as well.

The Crippler – FEAR

Even though fear is a good deal higher than guilt, at 100, the actual crippling effect that fear has on the populace makes it a terrifying falsehood for many. This can also be witnessed with the general population and it has been shown that its effects can solely be responsible for the termination of life itself – i.e. “Scared to death!” The actual mechanics of placing CGI images, over and over again, in front of the population, augmented by terrifying stories of people’s demise, is fundamentally an incredibly frail and baseless concoction, albeit a successful one. The only problem is that this weakness is overlooked by the masses because they allow themselves to be drawn completely into the damaging fear that is generated by the campaign itself. The best example here is the complete fabrication (commonly known now) that was the “swine flu” and how nothing other than a media campaign can be solely responsible for so many casualties.

Conclusion

After 45 months of the latest campaigns to instill fear & guilt upon the global population, one thing that has come clear is this – the absolute frail nature of the baseless claims themselves. It has gotten to the point where the level of credulity has reached peak proportions and for one to be duped by such ridiculous & illogical notions, has become spellbinding.

The modern day capture that campaigns producing fear and/or guilt, when one knows the Truth, create 2 completely different realities – one in the fear/guilt mode of life; and the other in freedom.

Humanity is certainly moving into what is termed divergent realities. The iron grip of old world, propaganda controlled mindsets and those manifesting a world of peace, freedom & abundance, for all.

Every incarnated individual has this choice to make.
