2024 Update: We are entering the year of disclosure, corresponding disruption & miracles. The disruption likely forthcoming will be unsettling times for many, especially for those unwilling to acknowledge what is directly in front of them. For this reason, this (and all) group meditation will be even more beneficial in mitigating these confusing times. If anyone would like prayers directed to your family members or friends, then please feel free to energetically include them in your personal attendance and the Bringers of Love will correspondingly encompass your petition.

Given the historical confirmation whereby significant numbers of those meditating as a group are able to alter the greater consciousness of a city, for example (i.e. lower the crime rate), we humbly request your participation and the application of your own powerful free will.

Meditation/prayer sessions are now held on Sunday evening @ 7 p.m. PST*.

You are invited to find your own comfortable spot or kneeling bench, wherever you are and spend 5 minutes to however long you wish, to join in the elevation of Light & Life (collective global consciousness) for planet Earth (Mother Gaia/Urantia). If you can find a space in nature, all the better!

As many would know, the collective benefits that can be gained by such a gathering will go beyond to provide personal benefits to those who spend a determined amount of time in an elevated meditative state. see “The Relative Power of the Upper Levels of Consciousness” – [www.rebuildthenation.ca] Your consciousness calibration contribution, as days progress this year, will eventually become evident as we leave the old paradigm behind.

It is acknowledged that any time spent in an attitude of Love, Truth, Gratitude and/or Forgiveness automatically is time NOT spent in the sub-200 positionalities... and every kind word, thought or deed is recorded in the universe, eternally. Thank you for applying your own powerful free will to secure and establish imminent & eternal Light & Life, for our planet!

*Linear vs. Non-linear Thought

Linear thought is the domain of the sub-500 levels of consciousness. While it has served its purpose throughout history, it also has imposed its limitations. The domain of non-linear thought resides with consciousness levels of Love (500 or above), and is the mode for our new Earth, once settled in Light & Life. This is the realm of conceptualization (vs. linear thought) and is based upon everything being present in the here & now. When applied to our Sunday meditations, non-linear thought tells us that if we are not in the Pacific Standard time zone, we have 2 available options:

- 1) join the meditation in your time zone that aligns with 7pm PST, OR
- 2) align with the meditation by ‘joining’ the group on Sundays at 7pm your local time!

While these concepts may be foreign to many still, this is merely an indicator of the programming that has governed all of our lives, since we were born.

In Love & Light,
