

Paper: Truth is Power

Date: 17 Dec. 2022 (rev. 17 Jun 2024)

By: D. R. Shearer

Topic: God is Love is Truth is Power. Aside from clinical confirmations on this claim by the esteemed David R. Hawkins and his exhaustive research, there exists evidence from other research sources. Namely A Course in Miracles and the Urantia Book. While evidence of many of these matters evades modern 'scientific' capabilities, as Hawkins notes, proof is evidentially available by way of experience (as many have noted throughout history).

Introduction

The culmination of my theological research, comprising 14 years and completing in 2012, left me with a firm understanding on the Universe (Grand & Local), God (His attributes & position as concerning 'creature' progression) and the life, times & message of the Creator Son known to us as Jesus or Christ Michael.

Aside from bringing peace & clarity, the approximately 3,402 pages referred to, brings fundamental conceptual advantages for the reader in their attempt to decipher just what 'life' is all about. One example is given here, which supports the topic headline of this paper. This is a passage from A Course in Miracles which has the ability to alter a much-accepted tradition, thereby saving time & effort, for anyone who avails themselves to it.

Specifically, the topic is the widespread concept of meditation, and the 'quieting of the mind' to achieve a desired state of consciousness. ACIM illuminates this reality to provide a different Reality. "Here is the quick and open door through which you slip past centuries of effort, and escape from time."

A Course in Miracles

Chapter 18

VII. I Need Do Nothing

1. You still have too much faith in the body as a source of strength. What plans do you make that do not involve its comfort or protection or enjoyment in some way? This makes the body an end and not a means in your interpretation, and this always means you still find sin attractive. No one accepts Atonement for himself who still accepts sin as his goal. You have thus not met your one responsibility. Atonement is not welcomed by those who prefer pain and destruction.

2. There is one thing that you have never done; you have not utterly forgotten the body. It has perhaps faded at times from your sight, but it has not yet completely disappeared. You are not asked to let this happen for more than an instant, yet it is in this instant that the miracle of Atonement happens. Afterwards you will see the body again, but never quite the same. And every instant that you spend without awareness of it gives you a different view of it when you return.

3. At no single instant does the body exist at all. It is always remembered or anticipated, but never experienced just now. Only its past and future make it seem real. Time controls it entirely for sin is never wholly in the present. In any single instant the attraction of guilt would be experienced as pain and nothing else, and would be avoided. It has no attraction now. Its whole attraction is imaginary, and therefore must be thought of in the past or in the future.

4. It is impossible to accept the holy instant without reservation unless, just for an instant, you are willing to see no past or future. You cannot prepare for it without placing it in the future. Release is given you the instant you desire it. Many have spent a lifetime in preparation, and have indeed achieved their instants of success. This course does not attempt to teach you more than they learned in time, but it does aim at saving time. You may be attempting to follow a very long road to the goal you have accepted. It is extremely difficult to reach Atonement by fighting against sin. Enormous effort is expended in the attempt to make holy what is hated and despised. Nor is a lifetime of contemplation and long periods of mediation aimed at detachment from the body necessary. All such attempts will ultimately succeed because of their purpose. Yet the means are tedious and very time consuming, for all of them look to the future for release from a state of present unworthiness and inadequacy.

5. Your way will be different, not in purpose but in means. A holy relationship is a means of saving time. One instant spent together with your brother restores the universe to both of you. You are prepared. Now you need but to remember you need do nothing. It would be far more profitable now merely to concentrate on this than to consider what you should do. When peace comes at last to those who wrestle with temptation and fight against the giving in to sin; when the light comes at last into the mind given to contemplation; or when the goal is finally achieved by anyone, it always comes with just one happy realization: "I need do nothing."

6. Here is the ultimate release which everyone will one day find in his own way, at this own time. You do not need this time. Time has been saved for you because you and your brother are together. This is the special means this course is using to save you time. You are not making use of the course if you insist on using means which have served others well, neglecting what was made for you. Save time for me by only this one preparation, and practice doing nothing else. "I need do nothing" is a statement of allegiance, a truly undivided loyalty. Believe it for just one instant, and you will accomplish more than is given to a century of contemplation, or of struggle against temptation.

7. To do anything involves the body. And if you recognize you need do nothing, you have withdrawn the body's value from your mind. Here is the quick and open door through which you slip past centuries of effort, and escape from time. This is the way in which sin loses all attraction right now. For here is time denied, and past and future gone. Who need do nothing has no need for time. To do nothing is to rest, and make a place within you where the activity of the body ceases to demand attention. Into this place the Holy Spirit comes, and there abides. He will remain when you forget, and the body's activities return to occupy your conscious mind.

8. Yet there will always be this place of rest to which you can return. And you will be more aware of this quiet center of the storm than all its raging activity. This quiet center, in which you do nothing, will remain with you, giving you rest in the midst of every busy doing on which you are sent. For from this center will you be directed how to use the body sinlessly. It is this center, from which the body is absent, that will keep it so in your awareness of it.

Conclusion

The great thing about all the confusion that is present currently, is that the Truth that has always been there, is emerging at an accelerated rate. The confusion that comes along with this rapid emergence of Truth is merely due to (weaker) forces attempting to divert the mind of the seeker. It has always been this way... all things are simply accelerated now.

Aligning with the intuition and keeping an open mind greatly aids in the process before us, at this time.

The future both doesn't exist and is certain.
