

Paper: Welcome to the Home Stretch

Date: 06 Jan. 2023 (rev. 17 June 2024)

Topic: In keeping with the overall emergence of Truth is the understanding that there are forces operating, behind the scenes, both in the physical & ethereal realms. While this comforting realization is helpful in this wake up process, it is important to realize that no concrete information will be released to the public, until a significant level of awareness of the ‘global agenda’ by the masses, has been accomplished. This specific process is well under way.

Introduction

In order to understand how it is that we may be in the “Home Stretch” portion of this 3-year phenomenon, it is helpful to understand how it is that we even got to this stage. Briefly, humanity has been subject, for thousands of years, to the presence of an agenda that can be described as “profit over all else”. “All else” happens to be, the welfare of the individual and the environment (animals, vegetation, insects, etc.). In this way, anyone who has managed to be still breathing on this day, will have to have “dodged some bullets” in order to do so, as much of the population goes about “doing their job”, and fulfilling the global agenda commitments to gain profit & control.

Any darkness portrayed in the previous paragraph represents both, a) the public’s reticence in even looking at what is going on before their eyes, let alone speak about it, and b) the necessary information that the rest of us require to properly assess the situation and then utilize our free will to do something about it.

Doing Something About It

As mentioned in the ‘Topic’, the critical component of this 34 month escapade, is the wake up of the individual. The [now] confirmed evil that has been continually accentuating for millennia, is not something for the ‘faint of heart’. The problem before us all is that part of the programming that has gotten us into this fix, has also programmed humanity to be ‘faint of heart’. No one wants to find out that the institutions & governments have actually been serving their own best interests, to the detriment of the masses. But this is how unchecked evil progression works. And the events before us all now is exactly the waking up to the neglect that all of us had, in the past, to address these situations.

Clearly, many of us weren’t even aware of the need to look into these matters, throughout our lifetimes, because there were ‘protection’ agencies (FDA, EPA, etc., etc.) that were looking out for us. The information that has emerged since Mar2020 has brought to light the fact that money rules these agencies, NOT the concern for human welfare. This precisely is the roadblock for the masses, as they continue to disregard what is before their very eyes.

So, critical to the big picture, is the absolute need, for those who are aware or are becoming aware of the situation, to maintain their adamant stand for Truth. It is the obvious lack of morals, ethics & integrity that is the guiding force of the agenda (WEF, WHO, UN, etc.). This has become clearer by the day, since Mar2020, and which is now moving into even more insidious levels – for anyone who has eyes to see, that is!

The 'Home Stretch'?...

Evidence backed logic lets us know that we are not alone in this quest to overcome evil on this planet. The global agenda control (Blackrock, Vanguard, etc.) which represents the ultra-rich few thousand of us, is no longer in question. We must think that their iron-grip on the propagandized manipulation of the masses has affected every living soul that is in a position of influence... convincing each and every one of them that (now obvious) evil is the way to go... in order for us not to think that there is a carefully controlled alliance working behind the scenes, for the good of all... both physically & etherially. The details of their operations are leaked out by several channels currently.

One may suspect that the progress of these operations are proceeding in a fashion that is in alignment with the overall awakening that is occurring alongside it.

Additional to these operations, that we will soon formally know about, is the “off world” support. Most folks will either be receptive to this understanding, or not, based upon their own life conditioning and environmental influences. I am not here to try to convince anyone of something that prior conditioning has put a block on, but rather to relay that my life experiences combined with my extensive theological research (1998 to 2012 - see refs.), has confirmed for me that “off world” support, by way of our personal guides, angels & others, is more real than the fake world that has been imposed upon us.

The Critical Point

Shortly after Mar2020, I recognized that the format and execution of what became the activities of 2020 to current day, was both:

- 1) the result of ages old unchecked evil by way of propagandized (M.S. Media) control of the general masses, and
- 2) the formal ‘end game’ process that is the resolution of this unchecked evil, that will ultimately bring forth the imminent & eternal condition for a planet, known as “Light & Life”.

When a planet is “Settled in Light & Life” it means that God’s Love has been brought forward to the degree that it has influenced the entire population. This is where all souls operate with this as their guide stone, and which finally eliminates all of David Hawkins’ sub-200 positionalities, once and for all eternity. And it is a product of each of our powerful free wills.

While this may sound like a flight of fancy, I can assure you that not only does this understanding of events line up with my theological research & information, but, for anyone seeing the things going on, the self-destruction of evil can also be recognized in a big way.

So the critical point then is – while many may not have the confidence that the masses will wake up “on time”, it is helpful to realize that the disintegration of society that proceeds, because the masses are refusing to address the issues, is the motivating factor that ensures success, in the end. And important to note is that whatever disintegration of the things we think we care about (except human life), are things subsidiary to what we simply do need to care about – the distillation of the Urantia Book -

- 1) the Fatherhood of God, and
- 2) the brotherhood of man.

Once we achieve this, ALL ELSE will fall into place.
