

Introducing

Aliantha Lim 林玉玲

SAG-AFTRA

about 關於

Aliantha began her acting career during COVID in Hawaii in the Fall of 2020. She booked several background roles on Magnum, P.I. and joined SAG on her fourth day of work, “Because I go confidently in the direction of my dreams,” she shrugged. Ali knew from her first day on set that she wanted to be an actor.

Three months later, Ali booked a recurring bg role on Disney Plus’ Doogie Kamealoha, M.D. and spent four months filming Season One. There, she was able to learn about acting and film production first-hand. She observed and absorbed as much as she could, and developed relationships with the cast and crew. “We were filming during lockdown, working 14-hour days and surviving a pandemic together. Now, when we see each other, it’s like running into family,” Ali said.

Aliantha returned to DKMD for Season Two where she had multiple features, and her name was integrated into the dialogue of an episode. Acting and set life felt natural, almost effortless, for her. By wrap day, Ali had worked over 100 set days on high-budget productions exclusively.

Ali enrolled in scene study class at John Rosenfeld Studios in 2023 and booked her first video game as a voice actor: Sega’s Like A Dragon, Infinite Wealth. Despite the Actor Strike, Ali was able to continue classes and hone her craft all year. This year began with a glorious return to set in her network co-star debut on CBS’ NCIS: Hawaii portraying Lt. Cmdr. Meredith Brooks. Her performance with LL Cool J was also included the show’s promotional trailer.

“ I felt like... I’d never been as “me” in my entire life, as I am when I’m on set. I knew it. This is what I want to do. I am an actor. This is it. ”

Snapshots from an actor's life: below, the day that Nurse Ali learned what a “special” was on Doogie Kamealoha, M.D. (Disney Plus, 2021); Ali's network debut scene as Lieutenant Commander Meredith Brooks on NCIS: Hawaii (CBS, 2024); Ali and Darny filming closeups with the Super Technocrane on location for Magnum, P.I. (CBS, 2023).

making an impression

By Season Two of Doogie Kamealoha, M.D., Aliantha had impressed the production team with her professionalism, teamwork, and morale-boosting attitude. Her name was integrated into the script of a scene in the episode, Message From The Chief (Disney Plus, 2023).

artsy mom

She may not have it all together, but her warmth and kindness always make up for it. She's healthy, grounded, optimistic, and creative. Artsy mom is naturally interested in holistic healing and spirituality, and spends mornings at the beach with her kid and an oatmilk latte. The Caregiver.

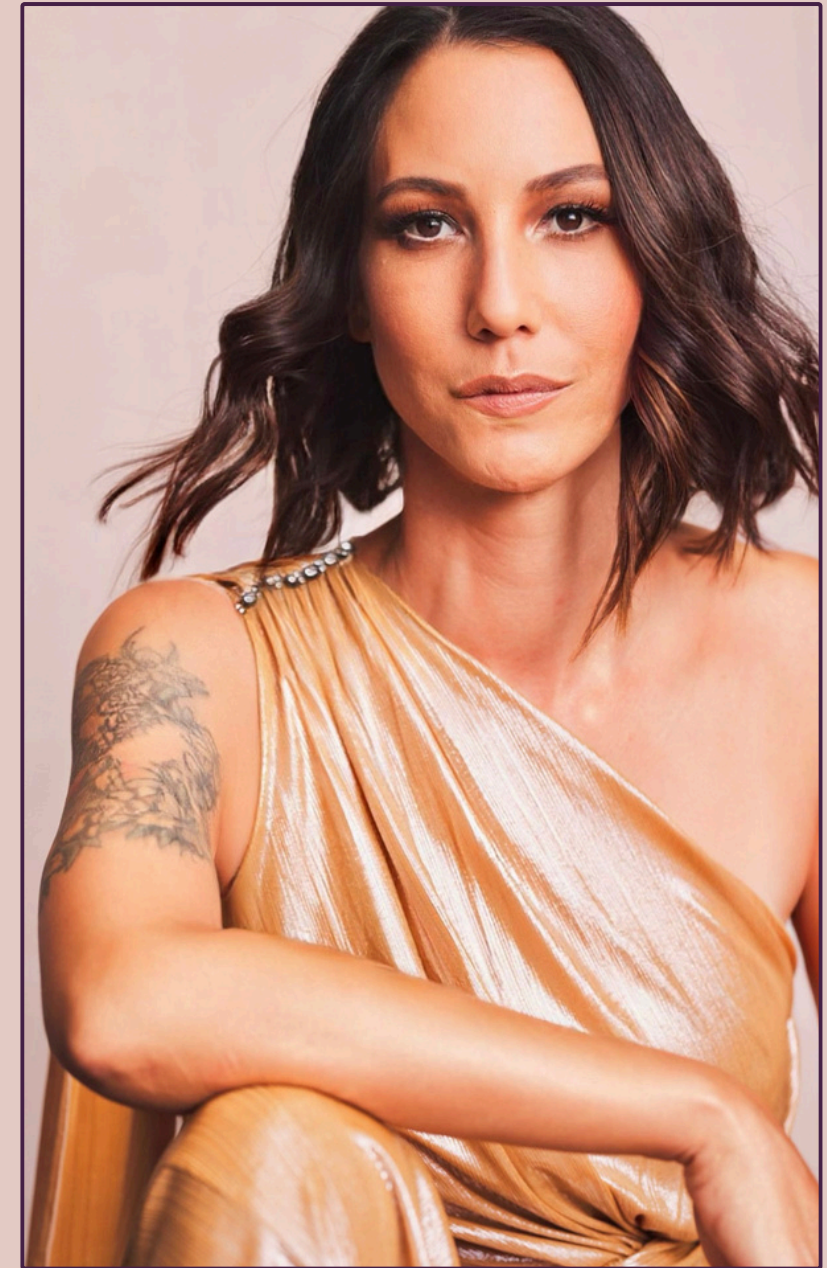

Roles- Designer, small business owner, pt yoga instructor, mom, confidant

the professional

She's "had it together" since she was a toddler. She is a leader: decisive, ambitious, diplomatic, whip-smart, and extremely capable. A true feminist, the Professional mentors young women in her field, which ironically causes her to neglect her personal and romantic life. The Ruler.

Roles- Lawyer, special agent, professor, doctor, executive, subject matter expert

the socialite

She was born into privilege and attended boarding school in Switzerland. The Socialite is chic and intriguing. Used to a certain level of comfort, she travels privately by jet. You can find her at a charity gala in Manhattan or yachting in Ibiza. Some think she is vapid and stuck up. The Lover; the Hero.

Roles- Bond girl, philanthropist, movie star, trophy wife, femme fatale, love interest

health & fitness

Aliantha stays in shape by having fun: swimming, yoga, canoe paddling, SUP, dancing, leisurely strolls, meditation, and chasing kids & puppies all keep her fit.
