

I, as a member of the fraternity, herein solemnly pledge and declare to all people that I will endeavor to contribute towards humanity. I will support any legitimate and deserving human cause during my lifetime. I will do it without intent or expectation of any return reward or gain of publicity, name and fame. I declare my dedication to our common mission of spreading goodness in our surrounding communities within our lands of residence and elsewhere across our geographical borders. I will fully support all such causes through intelligent use of my resources, intellectual assets, knowledge and co-operation. I will at no time ever, indulge in any slander, condemnation or malevolence towards other humans. I will also fully support all important causes of ecological concern to conserve our planet and its biodiversity. I promise to act with utmost integrity, diligence, respect and thoughtful collaboration to achieve our shared objectives for the welfare of humanity. I am well aware that this document is a one time declaration which cannot be repealed or revoked under any circumstances, unless for some rare reason, my health bars me from actively participating in any of the activities entrusted to me by my L'iles des nomads fraternity.

This document of my pledge and declaration supersedes any previous statement I ever made on the subject. I make this declaration from my country and place of residence. I desire that this formal document be kept on record in its digital form by the fraternity.
