Welcome to the family Tea & Stitches Boutique!

Say hello to Tea & Stitches Boutique, home of the Blue Dragon Fiber Arts owner Michelle Christopher! Michelle is a fiber arts teacher and pattern designer who has had her published designs sold throughout the USA, Europe, and the Netherlands! Tea & Stitches offers a cozy, welcoming space to learn crochet, knitting, weaving and crafting with complementary tea and treats. If you are looking to start your own project or are shopping for a gift, stop on down and relax with a book from their inspiration library. There are easy classes for adults, and they have the tools you will need to get started with including kits. Coming soon to suite 100; Call Michelle today at 716- 507-3103 to sit and stitch anytime with Tea & Stitches!

Parking lot renovations completed!

With our parking lot now completed, we have 5 handicap spots available, and we ask for you to please respect the no parking areas. As a friendly reminder, the large dumpster is for broken down cardboard ONLY. On top of this, the basketball court has NEW red, white and blue basketball nets as well as a new recycle bin and garbage bin. After the lot was completed, we received overwhelming Thank You's from the community, so let's do our best to keep The Commons a clean and fun place!

Primary day August 23rd in the Event Center!

Ken-Ton Elmwood Commons will be a polling location for the upcoming elections from 6am - 9pm at the Ken-Ton Event Center (Formally the Community Room)! Please join us any time during that day to place your votes!

Are you interested in hosting your event here with us?

Please contact John Duerr at 716-870-4104 for more information today!
