INT. SOPHIA CLOTHING PLANT - MORNING

PARKER walks into the plant, all decked out in the blazer William sent and nice slacks to match. He stops in the middle of an assembly line with many WORKERS, waiting patiently, with clipboard in hand. JANA approaches.

JANA

Parker Fontana? My father had a hospital emergency, but said we'll get the business here straight if it's the last thing he does.

PARKER

I'm sure he is improving now.
Where do you want to start here?

JANA

You're much younger than I thought...

PARKER

Hear it all the time. Graduated high school two years early. And...Fontana's a family business.

JANA

You're finished with school?

PARKER

My second year in college now.

JANA

Already?

PARKER

Gotta keep moving. I've been with the company for years.

JANA

That's great. Keep it in the family.

PARKER

This inspection shouldn't take long if your building is in compliance.
