

DREAMMAKERS

GIVING A VOICE TO OUR YOUTH...ONE MIC CHECK AT A TIME

DREAMAKERS was Founded by Actress, Singer, Producer, Songwriter, Activist: Drew Sidora in 2013, as a public charity. DREAMAKERS rests upon the biblical principle “train up a child in the way that they should go.”

OUR MISSION

DREAMAKERS empowers young women from diverse backgrounds to be empowered as leaders in their schools, churches, communities and the world. Through intergenerational mentorship, Multi-denominational beliefs, unconditional love, intercultural collaboration, and creative programs that equip our girls with the self confidence, resiliency, artistic gifts, spiritual enlightening and leadership skills needed to achieve their goals and improve their communities.

WHO WE SERVE

Young women ages 10-21. Our girls and mentors come from of a wide range of backgrounds representing diversity in family, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, politics, and education.

SUPPORT DREAMAKERS

Make a difference in the lives of young women with a donation! 100% of your Tax-Deductible contribution to DREAMAKERS will directly support our scholarship fund, and other initiatives to continue to spread our message and produce interactive events, your donation will ensure that hundreds of young women will have access to our life-changing leadership and mentorship initiatives.

“I believe I’ve been called to use my life experiences and spiritual gifts to transform my community. I want my legacy to impact at least one young person to believe that anything is possible. One mic check at a time, I am giving a voice to those who are not heard- OUR YOUTH.”
