

Drew Sidora's Dreamakers Foundation

Dreamakers was established in 2013, as a public charity, We rests upon the biblical principle "train up a child in the way that they should go" Through our foundation, young women ages 10-21 years old learn the skills to enhance their performance in life. They are provided with experiences that position them to become valuable in and beyond their communities. Dreamakers ensures healthy growth and development of young women into productive, contributing adults in society.*

What we do

Dreamakers....

- ❖ enhances personal/social academic performance through mentorship
- ❖ Provides continuum of support and advocacy

Our Mission

Dreamakers seek to restore the value of young women ages 10-21 in society by training them up to be Strong Women through an empowering support system, learning experiences, and opportunities to develop their gifts and talents to share with the World.
