

NOBLE is one of the nation's most respected law enforcement associations. Known as "the conscience of law enforcement," NOBLE addresses some of the critical issues facing law enforcement today:

- Biased-based Policing (Racial Profiling)
- Community Policing
- Less than Lethal Force
- Information Technology
- Law Enforcement Recruiting, Retention and Training
- Promotional Process Training
- Homeland Security
- Hate Crimes
- Family Violence
- Traffic Safety
- Environmental Crimes and Justice

NOBLE has a wide array of opportunities for professional development and mentoring including:

- Internships
- NOBLE Fellowship Program
- NHTSA/ NOBLE Officer Leadership Program (Traffic Safety)
- Mentoring Potential CEO Program in conjunction with Cedarville University
- Annual Conference and Exhibition
- Regional and Chapter Training
- NOBLE Center for Law Enforcement Learning
- The NOBLE Group (Law Enforcement Consulting)

Programs and services our members enjoy include the following:

- Electronic and print publications that include articles, upcoming events and training and members on the move;
- Employment services that include dissemination of job information and referrals;
- Fellowships where sworn personnel are detailed to the National Office for six months to a year to work on a project or conduct research;
- The NOBLE Youth Initiative;
- Networking through our over 57 chapters throughout the U.S. and the Caribbean (You must be a member of the national organization to be a member of a chapter).
- The NOBLE Website <http://www.noblenational.org>
