

A LIFE OF SERVICE

Jackie Brown is a 2004 graduate of the American Bar Association–Approved Certified California Paralegal program at UCLA Extension, where she completed her coursework at night while still working full-time. She also holds a 1974 Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology with a minor in Sociology from California State University, Dominguez Hills. She has received numerous plaudits for her volunteer work in alcoholism counseling, alternative dispute resolution, and family law. We are a family of teachers, social workers, and builders. We hail from Southwest Atlanta, Georgia at 265 Wilson Mill Road in the house that Minor Brown built.

Today, she is passing down her legal legacy to her son, Darrell Brown, who is completing his own Paralegal Certificate studies. He is a 1998 graduate of Cal State Los Angeles, where he received the Bachelor of Arts from the Department of Economics and Statistics. He made the Dean’s List twice. He is a life member of Omicron Delta Epsilon. His Upper Division Theme was “Development Process in the Third World.” He considers the inner cities to be a developing Fourth World whose lingua franca is Hip Hop. Jobs with peace looks and feels like the translucent dark blue, purple, and azure hues of the eastern sky at around 03:14 AM. That and a cup of coffee reminds us that we are still here!
