

Genesis 37: 1-11

Joseph's Dreams, Coat of Many Colors

Joseph, one of my favorite characters of the Bible, was one of twelve sons of Jacob, in a family with multiple mothers and a LOT of sibling rivalry.

“Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. This is the account of Jacob’s family line. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them. Now Jacob loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made an ornate robe [traditionally this has been known as a “coat of many colors”!] for him. When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more. He said to them, ‘Listen to this dream I had: We were binding sheaves of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it.’

His brothers said to him, ‘Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?’ And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said. Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. ‘Listen,’ he said, ‘I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.’

When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, ‘What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?’ His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.” [These dreams did come TRUE!!]

New International Version (NIV)

Holy Bible, New International Version®, NIV® Copyright ©1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.® Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

Can you picture Joseph, when his father gave him that special, colorful coat? It must have been a gorgeous coat, symbolic of his father’s love for him. He must have been SO proud! Can you picture him wearing it, showing it off to his brothers? Imagine also what his brothers, who were already jealous of him, must have thought of Joseph and this coat! In addition to this, Joseph had not just one dream, but TWO dreams, in which he himself was shown to be superior to all his brothers. This set the stage for a VERY interesting life for Joseph, who indeed was a very special character in God’s plan for his people—very special indeed! Please read the rest of his story in Genesis!

Color has been very special in my own life! In the early 1990s, I began to teach math with colored chalk instead of white chalk on a black or green board. Using different (or same) colors to illustrate different (or similar) concepts really makes the explanation much easier to understand. For me, this became “Math in Living Color.” As with Joseph, it was a special gift from a father that really loved him. It was indeed a gift from the Lord, and it changed my career as a math teacher! Then, suddenly I realized my genetic component of ‘color.’ My grandfather founded Dahliadel and spent his life and career growing dahlias in New Jersey. Because dahlias do not grow well in Florida, where I spent my own life and career, I was never privileged to see dahlias in bloom. After retirement, there they were—now I can see “Dahlias in Living Color”!!!

Return to website

Dr. Robert J. Rapalje, Retired
Seminole State College of Florida
Altamonte Springs Campus
Email: rapaljer@mathinlivingcolor.com