

I'LL LIVE AGAIN !

--Irma B. Williams

I know my Redeemer lives; My eyes shall behold Him in glory;
Tho' this house of clay dissolve and decay,
Like Jesus some day I'll be.

O beautiful tho't to me: Like Him we shall be when we see Him;
In robes of pure white, reflecting His light,
Throughout all eternity.

O glorious Word divine, There shall be a great resurrection;
The Christian who dies in Christ shall arise,
To sing the redemption song.

There's one blessed truth I bear, A message of hope and assurance;
Plant me in the sod, yet I shall see God;
In His likeness I shall be.

Chorus:

And I'll live again; My eyes shall behold my Redeemer;
Tho' this house of clay dissolve and decay,
New life will just begin.

Copyright 1981 by Tennessee Music and Printing Company in
"The Song Goes On."