

Philippians 2: 3-8

Be humble, like Christ!

“Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross.”

New International Version (NIV)

Holy Bible, New International Version®, NIV® Copyright ©1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.® Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

We should have the mind of Christ, in humility. Humility doesn't mean thinking LESS of YOURSELF, but rather thinking of YOURSELF LESS. The mind of Christ is thinking of others because you know the Lord will take care of you. As the great evangelist once said,

“Seek secrecy for your own good deeds. Do not even see your own virtue. Hide from yourself that which you yourself have done that is commendable, for the proud contemplation of your own generosity may tarnish all your alms. Keep the thing so secret that even you yourself are hardly aware that you are doing anything at all praiseworthy. Let God be present, and you will have enough of an audience.” Charles H. Spurgeon

Return to homepage

Dr. Robert J. Rapalje, Retired
Seminole State College of Florida
Altamonte Springs Campus
Email: rapaljer@mathinlivingcolor.com