THE DAUGHTERS OF THE PIONEERS OF WASHINGTON: INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCEPTING NEW ACTIVE, ASSOCIATE, ASSOCIATE-1889, AND JUNIOR MEMBERS.
NOTE: A CONNECTION MUST BE MADE BETWEEN EACH GENERATION BACK TO THE PIONEER ANCESTOR(S). THIS IS A LINEAGE ASSOCIATION THEREFOR DOCUMENTS ARE NEEDED TO PROVE PIONEER LINEAGE AND RESIDENCY.

Documents Needed to Prove Pioneer Lineage and Residency (photocopies only):

- 1. Pedigree Chart complete with all the names and dates that you can find back to the Pioneer Ancestor(s). SDPW provides a chart or use one from a genealogy program, such as Ancestry or Legacy. Only the qualifying family line is needed.
- 2. Proof of applicant's parent(s): copy of applicant's birth certificate (BC) showing names of both parents, or of the qualifying parent. (Can only be requested by applicant. May be a fee. <https://www.cdc.gov/nchs/w2w/index.htm>)
- 3. Proof of grandparent with mother's OR father's birth certificate (BC): whichever parent qualifying through. <https://www.cdc.gov/nchs/w2w/index.htm>; Can be requested by anyone, depending on the state. May be a fee. OR grandparent obituary naming parent as a son or daughter; OR a census record with grandparent and applicant's parent the in household as a young person.
- 4. Provide proof of ancestor(s) back to qualifying year:
 - a. Obituary naming applicant's ancestor as son/daughter.
 - b. OR copy of an early family bible record
 - c. OR Census record listing ancestor as being in the household as a young person.
- 5. Provide proof of arrival to Territory and residency: Land claim, Donation Land Claim, Homestead Claim OR Census. Print out with number, date, ancestors name and place where land is located. (Source: <https://www.blm.gov/or/landrecords/> Search by name or land legal description. Land Records, General Land Office Records, GLO Records Search, (at bottom of web page). OR census record can be used if land record can't be found.

Federal censuses are decennial (1860, 1870, etc.), state censuses are usually 1865, 1875, or more often in some cases. Free online search. <https://familysearch.org/>; most public libraries have free access with a library card to Ancestry.com

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS:

The State DPW Membership Application form must be completed and submitted along with appropriate documentation to the Historian of the chapter you wish to join. The form can be filled out on a computer. A free PDF reader can be downloaded from Adobe.com. Please fill out the entire form digitally, then print and applicant signs 1st page, plus the Descendant Report. For an applicant without a computer, print and legibly fill out the form by hand in blue or black ink. After the application is complete and all proof documents are submitted, the Chapter mails a copy of the application's first page and the pedigree chart to the State DPW Historian, who will review, assign a member number and mail a certificate to the Chapter Historian. A copy of the completed application and proof documents remains with the Chapter for member's file.
