Position Overview:

Our State and Territory Community Champions are the connectors between AWAU's national leadership and local African women's communities. They will share state-based community activities to AWAU for promotion, and help organise the flagship Spring High Tea (in their state/territory). They may assist with other opportunities for celebration, connection, and advocacy.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Organise and host the annual Spring High Tea in your state/territory
- Build and maintain relationships with local African women's networks
- Promote AWAU initiatives within your state
- Identify community needs and feed insights into national planning
- Collaborate with other Champions for cross-state connections

Desired Skills & Qualities:

- Strong community connections and networks
- Experience organising events (small or large)
- Confident communicator and community ambassador
- Passionate about uplifting and celebrating African women
- Organised, proactive, and approachable

How to Apply:

Please complete the State and Territory Community Champion Expression of Interest Form via our website: www.awau.org.au/join-us

If you have any questions about the role, you can email us at info@awau.org.au. Applications close on Monday 12th January 2026 at 11:59pm AEDT.

We warmly encourage African women of all backgrounds, ages, and experiences to apply.
