

FUTURE FORWARD ACADEMY CAREER CAPSULE VOL. 1

Written by Dr. Scott Dell

January 24, 2023

As the new year fast approaches, I wanted to thank you for being a part of our Career Capsule community. This special holiday issue, YOUR latest Career Capsule newsletter, is your source for tools and resources to help you and those you serve wanting to learn, share, and

Included is a topic that could not only influence all of us over the coming year but also the coming generations. It is dedicated to gaining insights into Artificial Intelligence and AI Chatbots. This could potentially impact all aspects of life as we know it – no exaggeration! Included is an interview with OpenAI's ChatGPT where a series of career-related questions were asked. AI-generated responses immediately follow the questions below. Some of the answers are pretty good, while others, not so much. See the full transcript in this newsletter.

Before sharing this AI career “dialog”, I want to refer you to a LinkedIn post titled “AI ChatBot FAILS Accounting Final with a 46%, dropping from 83.3%: As a business faculty member or student, should I be worried or encouraged? The full post, with 8,000+ inspired views, 140+ insightful comments, and 70+ anxious reposts can be found at https://www.linkedin.com/posts/drscottcpa_aibot-chatbot-chatgpt-activity-7008409190507429888-GTsx? Please feel free to share your thoughts and impressions directly on the post.

As for my grade for this career interview included below, I give it an 80%. I did not include the last question, #10, in that 80% as it was an unfortunately a totally wrong answer. I therefore treated it as an outlier and eliminated it from the grading – though was wishing it could be true.

Let me know what you think! Could such a tool replace the Google query, a kind of “Google on Steroids” allowing for a natural language dialog of questions and answers? Could it replace employees or even the CEO of a company? Actually, it already has. An AI CEO has been put in place at the Chinese gaming company NetDragon Websoft. They named it Tang Yu. I wonder what “she” (they personified her as a she) is being paid?

Experimental Interview about Choosing Careers and Other Tips with AI Chatbot's ChatGBT from OpenAI

Q1: how do i prepare for a job interview

1. Research the company and the position: Before your interview, make sure you do your homework and research the company and the position you are interviewing for. This includes their mission and values, products and services, recent news and events, their competitors, and anything else relevant to the role you are interviewing for.
2. Prepare answers to common interview questions: Most job interviews include some common questions. Take some time to practice your answers to these questions, such as “Tell me about yourself” and “What are your greatest strengths and weaknesses?”
3. Prepare questions for the interviewer: Come prepared with questions to ask the interviewer. This could include questions about the team, the company's culture, and the day-to-day responsibilities of the role.
4. Dress appropriately: Make sure to dress professionally for the interview and look your best. This will show the interviewer that you take the opportunity seriously.
5. Arrive early: Make sure to arrive at least 10-15 minutes early for the interview. This will give you time to get settled and relaxed before the interview starts.
6. Follow up: After the interview, make sure to follow up with a thank you note and an email.

Q2: how do i figure out what i want for a career

1. Take an assessment: Taking an assessment can help you figure out what type of job might be a good fit for you. There are a variety of free online assessments that can help you narrow down your career options.
2. Research different careers: Take some time to research different career paths and industries that interest you. Read job descriptions and talk to people in the field to get a better understanding of the roles and responsibilities.
3. Identify your skills and qualities: Make a list of your skills, abilities, and qualities. This will help you identify which jobs or industries might be a good fit.
4. Narrow down your options: Once you have identified some potential career options, narrow down your list to a few that you are most interested in.
5. Plot out a plan: Once you have narrowed down your list, create a plan to pursue your desired career. This could include setting goals, taking classes, and networking with people in the field.

Q5: Write an article on choosing your career

Choosing a career can be one of the most daunting decisions of your life. With so many options and potential paths, it can be difficult to know where to start. It's important to take the time to research and explore all of your options before committing to a career. Here are a few tips to help you find the right job for you.

First, assess your skills, interests, and values. Think about what you do best, what you enjoy doing, and what is important to you. This will help you narrow down your search and make it easier to find an occupation that you'll be passionate about.

Next, research the different types of jobs available. You can do this by talking to professionals in the field, looking at job postings, and reading industry publications. This will give you an idea of the types of skills and qualifications that employers are looking for.

Once you have an idea of the type of career you'd like to pursue, it's time to start networking. Connect with people in your chosen field and get their advice on what it takes to succeed. This will help you gain a better understanding of the industry and give you valuable insight into what it's really like to (note: purposely limited ChatGBT length of article. It cut off mid-sentence).

Q6: What are the best colleges for accounting

1. University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
2. University of Pennsylvania
3. New York University
4. University of Texas at Austin
5. University of Southern California
6. Brigham Young University
7. University of Notre Dame
8. University of Michigan
9. University of Florida
10. University of California, Berkeley

Q7: What are top 10 LinkedIn tips?

1. Complete Your Profile: A complete profile creates a strong impression and is more likely to be found by recruiters.
2. Get Endorsements: Once your profile is complete, ask for endorsements from colleagues, clients, and partners.

3. Join Groups: Join relevant groups related to your industry and start engaging in conversations.
4. Showcase Your Work: Post articles, videos, and presentations that showcase your work.
5. Ask For Recommendations: Ask former colleagues, bosses, and clients to write recommendations for you.
6. Connect With Employees: Connect with employees of companies you'd like to work for and follow their updates.
7. Research Companies: Use LinkedIn to research companies and understand their culture, products, and services.
8. Follow Influencers: Follow influencers and thought leaders in your field to stay up to date with industry news and trends.
9. Follow Companies: Follow companies you're interested in to stay informed about job openings and events.
10. Network: Use LinkedIn to network with professionals and build relationships.

Q8: Top 10 resume tips

1. Highlight Your Accomplishments: Make sure you are showcasing your biggest professional accomplishments that are most relevant to the job you are applying for.
2. Keep it Concise: Focus on quality rather than quantity. Make sure your resume is no more than two pages long – employers don't have time to read through a long, drawn out resume.
3. Tailor Your Resume to the Job: Before you even start writing your resume, make sure you research the job and tailor it to meet the job's requirements.
4. Use Action Words: Make sure to use powerful action words that convey your skills and accomplishments.
5. Make it Easily Readable: Use clear, concise language, and make sure to proofread your resume for any typos or errors.
6. Be Specific: Don't just list your job duties – describe how you achieved success and show the impact you had.
7. Showcase Your Technical Skills: Include any programming or software skills you may have in order to stand out.
8. List Your Education: Make sure to list your educational achievements, including any awards, honors, or certifications you may have.
