Mission Statement

Compassion-in-Action, Inc. (CnA) is an all-volunteer public outreach effort with two objectives: (1) an educational approach focused on the health benefits of compassion based meditation; and (2) facilitation of compassionate behavior through CnA's custom, handcrafted, 12-bead strands.

While educational programs are for all types of audiences, from teenagers to seniors and all points in-between, CnA has a special focus with marginalized populations, such as the homeless, veterans dealing with PTSD, indigenous cultures, and with members of the LGBTQ community. These focused areas are all related in that they face serious mental health challenges, higher suicide rates, and limited resources to help them.

Going beyond, CnA's educational outreach expands to the family and friends of these special focus groups, to the compassionate caregivers who work directly with stigmatized individuals in various settings, and to other healing environments, such as support groups, hospitals, churches, and compassionate based service clubs.

Facilitation of compassionate behavior centers upon the free distribution of CnA's signature meditation strand packets to CnA's target groups, with personal instruction that includes hands-on detailed teaching of CnA's 12-Step Meditation Practice - a clear and concise tool that can help anyone achieve and maintain the health and wellness benefits from living a compassionate life.

CnA's no-cost, no-obligation distribution employs the principals of the pay-it-forward concept, expanding to include grants to all interested people on an individual basis without discrimination.

Help Us to Pay-it-Forward

If a person or entity receiving CnA's meditation strands, or other interested parties, wants to pay it forward by helping us with the costs of making our strands for the benefit of someone else, we graciously accept unsolicited donations.

You can be assured that your tax-deductible contribution regardless of size, will be treated with the highest fiduciary standards, in strict accordance with CnA's stated founding principles and operating guidelines.

100% of your contribution goes directly into the materials, and for the distribution of our custom 12-bead meditation strands.

People receiving our strand packets, as well as donors, will not be placed onto any form of a mailing list, nor will we ever solicit a donor, directly or indirectly, as is common, especially for charities; this out of total respect to anyone willing to be part, in any way, of our outreach efforts.

Please mail your tax-deductible donation check to: CnA POB 2604, Frisco, CO 80443
