

Hello, my friend!

I am praying a very specific prayer for you today. I am praying God will shine on you and yours with great favor!

Thank you to those who have communicated specific ways for us to pray for you. It has been a tremendous blessing to know how to pray. I ask you to email me anytime with ways we can encourage you by praying. It can be a ministry request, a family request, or a church request.

Do you know a pastor or church leader that is in need of a confidential prayer partner? Or someone with whom they can talk? Please share my email with them. morrishorner@me.com Or introduce them to our website: www.APastorsSteps.Life . The ministries phone is (386) 898-2257.

I am honored to pray for you! Your requests will not be used in any way other than as a guide for the prayers offered up on your behalf.

An encouraging word from a fellow journeyman.

“When you sin, you have two choices. The better choice is to admit that you have sinned. But often we opt for the second choice. We erect arguments that make our sins look not so sinful after all, and those sins then become acceptable to our hearts.”

“The problem is that you and I can’t minimize our sin without devaluing the gift of God’s grace.”

“Excusing sin never goes anywhere good; confessing sin always produces good fruit.”

Paul David Tripp in Everyday Gospel.

A word of encouragement from God’s Word:

1 John 1: 9, ESV:

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Psalms 51: 10, ESV:

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.
